1) International Security Situation:

January 04, 2017

On January 03, the President of Indonesia, Joko Widodo, speaking in Jakarta, said that over the last year, Indonesia’s export increased by 12 percent. He also said Afghanistan had agreed with Indonesia to build bridges and railways in the country.

2) Kabul:

Rasa also stated that in the near future, Afghanistan could establish relations with countries based on them. He also appreciated the suspension of visa requirements for travelers to the United Arab Emirates, which would allow them to travel to the United Arab Emirates without a visa.

3) Development:

According to the Ministry of Interior (MoI) said that the Ministry of Interior (MoI) and the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) has dramatically slowed down. He said the ministry is striving to arrange money for the post offices, and that MoPH has not received any resources to pay the post offices so far.

4) Afghanistan,\n
The Ministry of Interior (MoI) said that a scanning operation has been launched by security forces to drive the insurgents away from the Afghan–Taliban districts. Afghan–Taliban districts have been under the control of insurgent groups for a long time.

5) Afghanistan,\n
Taliban claimed that a clearing operation has been launched by security forces to drive the insurgents away from the Afghan–Taliban districts. Afghan–Taliban districts have been under the control of insurgent groups for a long time.

6) Afghanistan,\n
In the province of Uruzgan, according to MoPH, says there are 455 new patients confirmed pneumonia-caused fatal cases. Dr. Gula Khan Ayub, public relations officer of MoPH, said some areas of the country have better economic conditions and have better economic conditions and have better economic conditions.

7) Afghanistan,\n
Most people in Nuristan did not have economic conditions and have better economic conditions and have better economic conditions.

8) Afghanistan,\n
The survey could not be conducted in some areas due to severe cold and insufficient human resource. The government is striving to arrange money for the post offices, but no quality education and health services were reported due to severe cold and insufficient human resource.

9) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

10) Afghanistan,\n
In Paktika, Badakhshan and Maidan Wardak provinces, measles, hepatitis-B and Pneumonia were confirmed pneumonia-caused fatal cases. Dr. Gula Khan Ayub, public relations officer of MoPH, said some areas of the country have better economic conditions and have better economic conditions.

11) Afghanistan,\n
The Ministry of Interior (MoI) said that the Ministry of Interior (MoI) and the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) has dramatically slowed down. He said the ministry is striving to arrange money for the post offices, and that MoPH has not received any resources to pay the post offices so far.

12) Afghanistan,\n
According to Dr. Ayub, educationally stable mothers are more likely to take care of their children.

13) Afghanistan,\n
The Ministry of Interior (MoI) said that the Ministry of Interior (MoI) and the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) has dramatically slowed down. He said the ministry is striving to arrange money for the post offices, and that MoPH has not received any resources to pay the post offices so far.

14) Afghanistan,\n
Several women and children left their homes due to severe cold and insufficient human resource. A local commander was killed by a suicide bomber in a winter in a yard in the center of Afghanistan.

15) Afghanistan,\n
The Ministry of Interior (MoI) said that the Ministry of Interior (MoI) and the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) has dramatically slowed down. He said the ministry is striving to arrange money for the post offices, and that MoPH has not received any resources to pay the post offices so far.

16) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

17) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

8) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

18) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

19) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

20) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

21) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

22) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

23) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

24) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

25) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

26) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

27) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

28) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

29) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

30) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

31) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

32) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

33) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

34) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

35) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

36) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

37) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

38) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

39) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.

40) Afghanistan,\n
The survey showed that 9 out of 20 illiterate mothers, 11 out of 20 mothers with primary education, 10 out of 20 mothers with secondary education, and 10 out of 20 mothers with higher education volunteered their children for vaccination.