Main News Page

Three Civilians Killed in Nangarhar Blast

JALALABAD - At least three civilians were killed and blast in eastern Nangarhar province early Sunday, local officials said.

The incident took place in Kama district of the province.

A security force was driving through the area when the bomber detonated.

The bomber was a female suicide attacker.

The bomber was female suicide attacker.

Several other people were injured in the blast.

Afghan National Army (ANA) in the area said that a military vehicle collided with a civilian who has seventeen people wounded.

The blast was said to have wounded all of the victims.

There is no harm to the command.