Believes Karzai US Forces won’t towards India and Pakistan should work “SAARC has to be revived. Both to attend. 2016 as a result of India’s refusal whose summit was cancelled in 2015. We knew both countries and the representative for Afghan Reconstruction,” he said.

Main reasons for the US presence in Afghanistan, he opined, are the US forces would not exit the country if they had to surrender the bases they had accessed to in Afghanistan. ‘We are a strategically located country. Definitely, one of the main reasons for the US presence in our country is the strategic location,’ he said.

While hailing the appointment of Zalmay Khalilzad as US special representative for Afghan Reconciliation, he said the diplomat knew both countries and the region.

Karzai stressed revival of the South Asia Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC), whose summit was cancelled in 2018 as a result of India’s refusal to attend. ‘SAARC has to be revived. Both India and Pakistan should work towards it,’ he said.

Mashal, Gen. Bajwa Discuss Peace Process, Bilateral Issues

KABUL - At a meeting in Beijing, the two NSA’s discussed changing political dynamics in the region, threats and opportunities for the peace process in Afghanistan.

Both sides discussed various issues, especially counterterrorism, regional cooperation and efforts for an end to the 17-year-old conflict, a statement from the National Security Council’s Office of Defense and Diplomatic Affairs said.

Indian NSA Qamar Bajwa and Pakistani NSA Atif Mashal met in Beijing to discuss the diplomatic stance on the Indo-Pacific region as well as peace and stability in Afghanistan, Indian media reported on Saturday.
