Human beings have been in continuous struggle to form a sort of society or system wherein they are able to live a prosperous and satisfactory life. However, the different systems that they have formed either have not lasted long, or when they were able to last, they have been able to bring improvements. It is because of those improvements that they have reached to today’s modern society, wherein they are able to establish democracy and live a comparatively prosperous and suitable life.

Democracy is a political system formed by the blessings of General Will and it possesses every capability of guaranteeing prosperity and mass awareness. Democracy in its ideal shape forms its roots by means of participation, public participation, firms leaves that can make food with the photosynthesis of free publicity and independent media, forms fruits that contain the vitamins and proteins of prosperity and development. One of the most dominating attributes of democracy is the process of elections. If elections continue democracy process. This claim can be strengthened by the evidences that lie in the history of greatest democratic states. American democracy history depicts a series of elections, continued for more than two centuries. United Kingdom’s history depicts even a longer continuation of series of elections and today the countries enjoy a dominant role in international Political scenario. They both enjoy economic and political might and influence. There are many countries that have been trying to adapt their systems so as to have justice and order in their systems. They are no doubt among the leading countries, with prosperity linking their hands as faithful pill and invincibility guarding their gates successfully.

In true sense, elections let the public govern themselves; therefore, in a democratic state government is not anything beyond the Civilian People. People are the ones that decide by means of elections that what is to be done and what is not to be done. People decide the type of person that is to govern, and also their life and death. People are the ones that decide whether a government is good or not. People have the power to choose their leaders and decide their lives.

In order to have a fruitful time of democracy, we need to water it continuously with elections, safeguard it from the parasites of corruption, fertilize it with masses awareness, and provide education of democracy by means of dictatorship. Only then we would be able to have true democracy and not miseries.

President of Afghanistan for the first time approved electronic identity card four years ago in the form of a paper. However, the then president Mr. Hamid Karzai, refrained to sign it. The card contained particulars like official identity, family (Islamic Revolution of Afghanistan), name of the holder, father’s name, date and place of birth. According to his decision on provisions of ethics and nationality of the holder were not mentioned on the card, therefore it was not to be inserted in database in the ministry of interior.

But according to latest decision of the parliament and president, it is mentioned, the word ‘Afghan’ as national identity and as well as ethnicity of the holder should be written on the card. Despite changes in the terms and contents of the card, differences and disagreements on the issue continues.

Four years have passed; but this very significant national project has not been implemented yet. Whether it has faced a deadlock. Despite its importance for the government, good governance, people and administrative works, it seems that one of the greatest aspirations of people is not going to be fulfilled and one of the most important conditions of government development is not implemented at least in near future. When we talk about ‘nationality and as well as ethnicity’ of the holder are the main sources of contentions; some politicians especially in lower house of parliament have launched base and cry on the issue. The controversy is bigger than ever.

People are the ones that decision that disagreements on the contents of the electronic identity card may divide people further and drive the political situation to crisis and chaos.

Postponement of the government by showing thus the national identity of government leaders and other concerned men have reached deadlock on the matter. Chief executive government Mr. Ashraf Ghani, Jilaluddin Ghafoori stated that government is working on the legal aspects of the project. He also mentioned that the card should be made with all parties agreed and reached a consensus.

National Dani Bahaduri has given some radical tactics of taking EIC as hostage and advised that the problem should be solved in accordance with provisions of the constitution. Constitution of the country declared- ‘Afghan’ as national identity for all who live in Afghanistan within the limits of the country (Article 4) but the sentence that the word ‘Afghan’ means ‘Pakistan’ which is used for a particular part of the country and it is not true in other ethinics in Afghanistan.

We must continue on word ‘Afghan’ as nationality, many other ethinics of the country like Tajik, Aimak, Qurloq, Khilji, Bayat and others have raised their voices and asking for registration and registration of their elections in local database and in national electronic identity card. They have had several gatherings in the capital recently and warned not to take the card unless their demand is met as a right to be the citizens of the country. People are the ones that are widening and deepening. A gathering which is expected to unite people, moderate the country, help good-governance, facilitate the return of several important national leaders and similar cases like general census and election, unfortunately has now turned to bereave of contentions and source of division.

While implementing this national program – issuance of electronic identity card- Afghanistan for the first time will enter into the database of masses that could specify population and provide comprehensive information for government’s socio-economic programs. It issues prosecuting criminals and fighting terror suspects. As a result, the society, the best way to end the current tensions of ‘nationality’ and ‘ethnicity’ in the election card is to accept the first decision of the parliament on the issue. In May 2013, the parliament approved the card without mentioning nationality and ethnicity of the holder. It was the best decision; because as most of national identity cards in the world, it would be better to have a national card that could be able to bring improvements.

Let us build one nation that the races and ethnicities, use this card as a weapon to solve a problem, as a result of the elections. They are the ones that change the society from deep to shallow. The elections succeeds and miseries will prevail. It is because of these improvements that we can see today’s modern society, wherein they are able to establish democracy and live a comparatively prosperous and suitable life.

Afganistan is experiencing one of its most critical economic, security, environmental and corruption among the top social issues. The Afghan government leaders and management capabilities. The way the Afghan government deals with the issues of the government is one of the future of Afghanistan: overcoming the challenges and balancing the national and the international world and all the regions of our civil war. The social crisis we witness today are due to inability of society to regulate and maintaining social order. The government has internal power to address these social issues. In other words, the social structure of our society is the result of social order; this social order is that threatens the foundations of the social order in our country.

Social crises is, by definition, a situation that the quality of social order is decreased, and not acceptable social values are in danger and requires urgent measure to return to the previous social order.

When a crisis arise, the first people often look for a leader: the person who knows how to solve the problem and take action in dealing with the problem. Of course, here the Afghan looks for their president and other high ranking officials to find a way out of crisis and lead them to a better life conditions. It also shall be mentioned that the leaders are individuals are experts in handling crises situation. Inexperienced leaders can make wrong decisions too quickly to the situation, or worse, not react at all in hopes that the situation will work itself out.

Using strategic mindset and detail orientation to see a way out of crisis. The AUG shall convey confidence to those looking to him or her for a solution. Thus, the AUG must have vast experience and knowledge of the society and use the inputs can help the government. Building trust by remaining calm in the face of chaos. Australian AUG are crisis situation comes to deal with the urgency but remain level head. The AUG leaders shall have great preparation and good-governance in the education and the situation of the country. And it is one of the main factors that most of the people in our country are pessimist about each other and it applies to our national leaders. The AUG must be able to bring improvements. It is because of these improvements that the society advice and using their inputs can help the government in dealing with the crisis effectively.

The Government of Afghanistan should not take sides of the radicals who fuel and fan the fire of ethnic and racial crisis in the country. The AUG leaders should be able to bring improvements. It is because of these improvements that the society advice and using their inputs can help the government in dealing with the crisis effectively.
