China as the all-weather Friend of Afghanistan

By: Liu Jinsong

Today marks the 64th anniversary of establishment of diplomatic ties between China and Afghanistan. In the past 64 years, our two countries have maintained a sound friendship no matter how the international situation and our respective domestic situations have changed. China’s friendship and support to Afghanistan, especially in the face of terrorism, has played an important role in stabilizing the situation in Afghanistan and China and supported the establishment of diplomatic ties between us. In China, we see Afghanistan as a friend who we can rely on in all conditions.

In the past 64 years, we have supported each other and treated Afghanistan as a friend we can rely on. Regardless of the size and power, we can live in peace and harmony; we have supported each other and treated Afghanistan as a friend we can rely on. Regard"
