the attack on the staff bus in Darulaman Road in Kabul. Seven employees were killed and 26 others wounded in a suicide car bombing on January 20, 2016. Sadat, was one of dozens of TOLO TV staff members targeted with him today.

In 2016, said he still carries the psychological and physical scars of the bombing with him today. But for Sadat, once his physical wounds had healed, two years ago, today - on a Wednesday evening - Haseeb had been on his way home with his colleagues. Today, after the successful conclusion of these efforts, Ubaidullah went to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad on Friday. According to Foreign Office, the child was reportedly found in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad on Friday.

TOLOnews that 1,600 Daesh militants were killed in 2017 in Afghanistan and that the Daesh threat is not growing. But for Sadat, once his physical wounds had healed, two years ago, today - on a Wednesday evening - Haseeb had been on his way home with his colleagues.

KABUL - The spy network on Saturday claimed preventing a terrorist attack in northern Kunduz province by arresting a would-be suicide bomber. A statement from the National Directorate of Security (NDS) said the alleged would-be attacker was detained during a raid in Kunduz City, the provincial capital. It identified the suspect, Qari Mohammad Sadiq, a member of the Taliban. He was arrested along with explosive devises.

The statement claimed the detainee had confessing his planning of carrying out a suicide attack in Kunduz City. The statement did not mention the exact time of the would-be bomber’s detonation. News the displaced families have been housed in Chahardula district to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province, an official said Saturday.

Launched a week back, the clearing operation has displaced around 2000 families in Chahardula district to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province; an official said Saturday.

KUNDUZ - An ongoing clearing operation has displaced around 2000 families in Chahardula district to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province; an official said Saturday.

Two years ago, today - on a Wednesday evening - Haseeb had been on his way home with his colleagues when the suicide car bomber detonated his explosives. He told Pashto Afghan News that rumors about the transporters paid taxes to the Taliban for the customs duty. He would be traveling later today to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province. The child was reportedly found in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad on Friday.

According to Foreign Office, the child had come to Pakistan with his parents for the medical treatment of his father several years ago. However, during their stay in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went missing. The mother of the child could not find his whereabouts and due to the sudden demise of Ubaidullah’s father, left for Afghanistan. The child was reportedly found by Islamabad Police on November 7, 2013 and was referred to Child Protection and Welfare Bureau who took the custody of the child. Meanwhile, Pakistani authorities and the diplomatic missions in Kabul continued efforts for tracing his family in Afghanistan.

Today, after the successful conclusion of these efforts, Ubaidullah was handed over to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad. He would be travelling later today to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province. The child was reportedly found in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad on Friday.

According to Foreign Office, the child had come to Pakistan with his parents for the medical treatment of his father several years ago. However, during their stay in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went missing. The mother of the child could not find his whereabouts and due to the sudden demise of Ubaidullah’s father, left for Afghanistan. The child was reportedly found by Islamabad Police on November 7, 2013 and was referred to Child Protection and Welfare Bureau who took the custody of the child. Meanwhile, Pakistani authorities and the diplomatic missions in Kabul continued efforts for tracing his family in Afghanistan.

Today, after the successful conclusion of these efforts, Ubaidullah was handed over to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad. He would be travelling later today to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province. The child was reportedly found in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad on Friday.

According to Foreign Office, the child had come to Pakistan with his parents for the medical treatment of his father several years ago. However, during their stay in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went missing. The mother of the child could not find his whereabouts and due to the sudden demise of Ubaidullah’s father, left for Afghanistan. The child was reportedly found by Islamabad Police on November 7, 2013 and was referred to Child Protection and Welfare Bureau who took the custody of the child. Meanwhile, Pakistani authorities and the diplomatic missions in Kabul continued efforts for tracing his family in Afghanistan.

Today, after the successful conclusion of these efforts, Ubaidullah was handed over to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad. He would be travelling later today to the provincial capital of northern Kunduz province. The child was reportedly found in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went to the Afghan Embassy in Islamabad on Friday.

According to Foreign Office, the child had come to Pakistan with his parents for the medical treatment of his father several years ago. However, during their stay in Islamabad, Ubaidullah went missing. The mother of the child could not find his whereabouts and due to the sudden demise of Ubaidullah’s father, left for Afghanistan. The child was reportedly found by Islamabad Police on November 7, 2013 and was referred to Child Protection and Welfare Bureau who took the custody of the child. Meanwhile, Pakistani authorities and the diplomatic missions in Kabul continued efforts for tracing his family in Afghanistan.