[3] Pentagons... President Trump seems to really want to like the number of US troops in Afghanistan. A senior US official in Washington has said that Trump wants the plans made in hope of seeing a US troop presence in the "transition period" for the US Army.
While addressing the issue of US withdrawal in Afghanistan, the official also said it would be impossible to achieve an agreement between the US and the Taliban. The official also said that the US and the US military government would need to discuss the issue of US troop levels in Afghanistan. He added that the US and the Taliban are very close to an agreement on the issue.
