KABUL - The Minister of Economy Abdul Samad Muner claimed that the Afghanistan must fight corruption from its roots, particularly in the countryside and the national level.

The absence of national will for fighting corruption is one of the big problems, he noted.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

Mohib

KABUL - Afghan Ambasador in US, Muhammad Atta-ni has met with US Deputy Secretary of State John Kerry and discussed bilateral and regional issues.

He said that the envoy wrote on his social media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, including security forces, the government, and the judiciary," he added.

He said that the envoy wrote on his so-
cial media page on Friday that the discussion focused on post-Brexit conversations, and the implementation of USAID projects.

Reforms process, facilities for the Afgha-

nian couple and their two children were discussed.

Meanwhile, the deputy head of EU Delegation to Afghanistan noted, "the European Union has called on the Afghan government to effectively address its efforts against corruption in public offices, particularly in the country's legal and law enforcement institutions."

"All Afghans should take personal responsibility for ending the scourge, includ-
in...