Ghani did not mention the Qatar talks but instead talked about the talks that the Taliban wants to be part of an international government instead of an interim government. He appeared to stand firm in his demand that Afghan prisoners be released before the start of the talks. He also rejected the matter of bribery by commanders.

Ghani did not mention the Qatar talks being delayed or cancelled. He said Khalilzad is due to brief top regional commissioners and said the protesters could not enter the country for the long term. "Ghani said. He also said that the federation's plans which were made before should be implemented.

With Khalilzad and his boss US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, a meeting was held on Sunday where Khalilzad asked the US to provide all facilities to Khost traders instead of creating fear. Both the US and Taliban were active in the region for the long term, "Ghani said. He also said that the federation's plans which were made before should be implemented.
