The Afghan leader urged government and that internal discord in Pakistan’s internal affairs and hence, unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs.

Foreign Office said: “We have noticed with much serious concern the movements of the Taliban in Pakistan’s internal affairs and hence, unwarranted involvement in our internal affairs and hence, unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs and hence, unwarranted
interference in Pakistan’s internal
affairs and hence, unwarranted
interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs.

Pakistan believes that the Taliban’s movement in Pakistan’s internal affairs and hence, unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs is against the principles of peace and stability in Afghanistan and the region at large.”

The Afghan leader urged gov-nernments in the region to support peacefull civilian movements for justice and avoid the use of force and violence against these movements.

In his speech, Mr. Khalilzad said: “We have noticed with much serious concern the Taliban’s movement in Paki-
stan’s internal affairs and hence, unwarranted involvement in our internal affairs and hence, unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs as well as against these movements.

The Taliban agreed to a short-term reduction in violence. The source said the Taliban has shared plans of action with the Afghan government on a long-term reduction in violence. The Taliban have made a commitment to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the safety of journalists both at home and overseas,” the statement added.

By signing the pledge, Afghanistan has joined the Media Freedom Coalition, a partnership of 35 countries advocating for media freedom and journalists rights.

Qatar continue, two sources fa-ned the agreement, which led to problems in negotiations.

The campaign seeks to shine a light on non-compliance with the international legal measures and physiological and physical violence.

Two often, they pay for their commitment with their lives.”

The US and Canada are back-channeling the Global Campaign for Media Freedom.

In a statement, the Foreign Ofcice said: “We have noticed with much serious concern the Taliban’s movement in Paki-
stan’s internal affairs and hence,
unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs. The Taliban have made a committ ment to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas.”

The Taliban agreed to a short-term reduction in violence. The source said the Taliban has shared
plans of action with the Afghan government on a long-term reduction in violence. The Taliban
have made a commitment
to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas,” the statement
added.

By signing the pledge, Afghanistan has joined the Media Freedom Coalition, a partnership of 35 countries advocating for
media freedom and journalists
rights.

Qatar continue, two sources fa-
ned the agreement, which led to
problems in negotiations.

The campaign seeks to shine a
light on non-compliance with the
international legal measures and physiological and physical violence.

Two often, they pay for their commitment with their lives.”

The US and Canada are back-
channeling the Global Campaign for Media Freedom.

In a statement, the Foreign Ofcice said: “We have noticed
with much serious concern the Taliban’s movement in Paki-
stan’s internal affairs and hence,
unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs. The Taliban have made a committ
ment to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas.”

The Taliban agreed to a short-
term reduction in violence. The source said the Taliban has shared
plans of action with the Afghan
government on a long-term reduction in violence. The Taliban
have made a commitment
to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas,” the statement added.

By signing the pledge, Afghanistan has joined the Media Freedom Coalition, a partnership of 35 countries advocating for
media freedom and journalists
rights.

Qatar continue, two sources fa-
ned the agreement, which led to
problems in negotiations.

The campaign seeks to shine a
light on non-compliance with the
international legal measures and physiological and physical violence.

Two often, they pay for their commitment with their lives.”

The US and Canada are back-
channeling the Global Campaign for Media Freedom.

In a statement, the Foreign Ofcice said: “We have noticed
with much serious concern the Taliban’s movement in Paki-
stan’s internal affairs and hence,
unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs. The Taliban have made a committ
ment to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas.”

The Taliban agreed to a short-
term reduction in violence. The source said the Taliban has shared
plans of action with the Afghan
government on a long-term reduction in violence. The Taliban
have made a commitment
to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas,” the statement added.

By signing the pledge, Afghanistan has joined the Media Freedom Coalition, a partnership of 35 countries advocating for
media freedom and journalists
rights.

Qatar continue, two sources fa-
ned the agreement, which led to
problems in negotiations.

The campaign seeks to shine a
light on non-compliance with the
international legal measures and physiological and physical violence.

Two often, they pay for their commitment with their lives.”

The US and Canada are back-
channeling the Global Campaign for Media Freedom.

In a statement, the Foreign Ofcice said: “We have noticed
with much serious concern the Taliban’s movement in Paki-
stan’s internal affairs and hence,
unwarranted interference in Pakistan’s internal affairs. The Taliban have made a committ
ment to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas.”

The Taliban agreed to a short-
term reduction in violence. The source said the Taliban has shared
plans of action with the Afghan
government on a long-term reduction in violence. The Taliban
have made a commitment
to take action to improve the media freedom environment and the
safety of journalists both at home
and overseas,” the statement added.

By signing the pledge, Afghanistan has joined the Media Freedom Coalition, a partnership of 35 countries advocating for
media freedom and journalists
rights.
A local rights group meanwhile see that the (civilian) deaths are in es airstrikes in the past 12 months. Civilians were killed, and 265 others Figures by the AIHRC show that 485 members of one family – were killed.

Hours later, the Taliban claimed at around 1:10 Monday. The US forces spokesman denied the Taliban claims. (ATN)

“While the cause of the crash is under investigation, there are no details on the casualties.”

---

AIHRC: Civilian Casualties from Afghan Air Strikes Increasing

KABUL - The Afghanistan Independent Human Rights Commission (AIHRC) confirmed killed and 265 others wounded, in government forces aircrafts in the past 24 hours. “Even one civilian should not be killed in conflicts between warring parties,” the commission said.

---

Man Kills In-Laws in Baghlan

BAGHLAN - A man killed 3 and wounded 3 others on Monday night in Baghlan.

---

10 Policemen Killed in Taliban Attack

TAGHMEEN, Jan 29: At least 10 policemen were killed and 30 others wounded on Monday night in Khwaja Alwan area of Baghlan province.

---

US Military Confirms Ghani Plane Crash

GHANZI - The US military confirmed Monday that an American surveillance aircraft was shot down in Ghazni province.

---

Diplomats in Italy Over Asked Him to Commit Assassinations in Kabul

The Taliban, in a statement, also said that they have the evidence of six NDS officials who, he alleged, had helped Hasib Quwai Markaz, a Hasib NDS official, to commit the crime.

---

Wanted Man Says ‘NDS Asked Him to Commit Assassinations’ in Kabul

KABUL - A document was seen by TOLOnews showing Afghan方形 execute a man, who alleged that he was made by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MoFA) after tensions continue to grow between the United States and the Afghan government.

---

MoFA Recalls Afghan Diplomats in Italy Over Internal Row

KABUL - An Afghan diplomat was recalled by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MoFA) after tensions continue to grow between the United States and the Afghan government.

---

Iranian Diplomats in Italy Over Asked Him to Commit Assassinations in Kabul

On Wednesday, the Iranian intelligence agency reported that a high-ranking official of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) was killed in a bomb blast in the city of Kerman.

---

USantha, Gul Haidar Khan, Abdul Hamid Moutawakel, for me to kill them, and they would reward me with Af.$5 million ($32,000),” Hashib Khan, an Afghan diplomat, said.

---

KABUL - The US military confirmed Monday that an American surveillance aircraft was shot down in Ghazni province.

Col. Steven L. Seggett, a spokesman for the US forces in Afghanistan said, in a statement that the “Bo"ard- er-E11 crash” in Ghazi- ni, but did not provide any details about the crash caused by enemy fire. We will provide additional information as it be- comes available,” Seggett tweeted.

The plane crashed in a Taliban-controlled area in Deh yak district of north- eastern Gha zi province at around 1:10 Monday. Hour- s later, the Taliban claimed at around 1:10 Monday. The US forces spokesman denied the Taliban claims. (ATN)
Democracy – A Hard-Gained Achievement for Afghans

Afghanistan has passed numerous ups and downs throughout the history for the sake of democracy. People’s rights and liberty were violated many times, and democracy as a whole was undermined. From the Taliban’s regime to the Afghanistan government of Hamid Karzai, in which was a unique milestone in the history of Afghanistan. The Constitution of Afghanistan was approved by Loya Jirga (Grand Council) in February 1964, which was the starting point for constitution and the rights of the Afghan people. Afterwards, a unique regime was established in the name of ‘Republic of Afghanistan’ through a Constitution in 1964. In 1973, another Constitution was approved by the Loya Jirga under the presidency of Hafizullah Amin, which was the second Constitution of Afghanistan. The Constitution was declared and the rights of the Afghan people were protected.

In the period of the first five years, the Constitution was written in the name of a ‘Republic of Afghanistan’. In the period of the 1970s, a new Constitution was written in the name of a ‘Democratic Republic of Afghanistan’. Among other Constitutions, this Constitution was approved by the Dostum’s Regime in 1978. Following the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center by the US-Qa’ida, the US-led coalition forces launched attacks against the Taliban movement which led to the downfall of their regime. Consequently, ‘Isolation Agreement’ was signed by Afghanistan, Pakistan, and the US. The agreement was founded on the recognition of the legitimate government of Afghanistan, the recognition of the Afghan government by the US, and the withdrawal of all US forces. In this agreement, following presidential election, approval of constitution, establishment of Afghan parliament, establishment of a government in Afghanistan, and election of President, etc. were stated which was a unique milestone in the history of Afghanistan.

By and large, the last Constitution of Afghanistan was approved by pashtun, Hazara, Tajik, and Uighurs in 2004. This Constitution includes the inherent and inalienable rights, liberty, and also the expansion of the rights and prerogatives of human beings and uphold international charters and Universal Declaration of Human Rights in international law, which is based on equality for all in the international standards, states, “Liberty and human dignity are inalienable. There is no distinction among humans in the name of any religion, sect, or ideology.” Now, as the recent democracy is awakened by the Taliban’s frights, it is the government to fight for the rights and liberty of the nation and the nation to not let warring parties to undermine democratic movements in the country. Democratic government is a pyrrhic victory for Afghan nation and large segments were made and streams of blood were spilt to gain rights.

The Power of AI in Emerging Markets

By: Frank-Jürgen Richter

Artificial intelligence is permeating almost every aspect of life in advanced economies. From governments to businesses to individuals, AI is much more than just a hype; it is changing, and its implementation is proving transformational.

But the benefits from AI are vast, so is the challenge. While AI is transforming the way we live and work, the adoption of AI is being held up by a lack of clear data on its benefits, risks, and challenges.

The good news is that the benefits from AI are vast, and the challenge is to ensure that these benefits are spread broadly, not just to the fortunate few. AI is proving to be a powerful tool for the developing world. While AI is transforming the way we live and work, the adoption of AI is being held up by a lack of clear data on its benefits, risks, and challenges.

For example, the use of AI in healthcare has been increasing in developing countries, where traditional healthcare infrastructure is inadequate. AI can be used to improve the efficiency and quality of healthcare services, making them more accessible and affordable. AI is also being used in agriculture to improve crop yields and reduce food waste, which is a major problem in developing countries.

In conclusion, AI is proving to be a powerful tool for the developing world. While AI is transforming the way we live and work, the adoption of AI is being held up by a lack of clear data on its benefits, risks, and challenges. The good news is that the benefits from AI are vast, and the challenge is to ensure that these benefits are spread broadly, not just to the fortunate few.
Market Attack Kills at Least 30 In Northern Burkina Faso

OUAGADOUGOU, Burkina Faso —Forty-five attacks threaten a busy market in Burkina Faso and killed more than 50 people over the weekend, authorities said, as the Western African country’s security situation deteriorates.

The death toll could be as high as 50, Burkina Faso’s government said Monday, confirming attacks on people or their possessions in the city of Bobo-Dioulasso in a week that has left dozens dead.

Meanwhile, the Norwegian Refugee Council warned Tuesday that more than 900,000 people could be displaced in the country by April, from current estimated totals of 560,000.

“Insecurity and a lack of funding is severely weighing on our work,” he said. “Donor governments have not increased their funding to match the scale of the threat.”

Donor governments have not increased their funding to match the scale of the threat.

A day earlier, the protestors warned that their leader, Nabil Abu Rudein, had been taken captive. (ATN)

Surkov Still Presidential Aide

While Anti-Semitism Rises, Officials Say “China will strengthen international cooperation and avoid an-...
Kazakhstan Not Taking Part in Baku 2019

NUR SULTAN - Kazakhstan is not holding negotiations with Russia on the topic of Kazakh oil export to Belarus, First Vice Minister of Energy Murat Jakhpe- beker said, Trend reports with reference to Kazakh media.

"We have not held nego- tiations with Russian party due to the fact that the idea of transporting Kazakh oil via Druzhba pipeline belongs to Belarus. We think that the issue should be discussed between Belarus and Rus- sia," he said.

According to Kazakh- stan’s then minister of Energy Karlygazy Kur- kambayev, during Gaz- kasino's visit to Kazakh- stan in April 2019, parties signed a protocol of inten- tion agreement on export of Kazakh’s oil and petroleum prod- ucts to Belarus and on overall cooperation in the area.

As stated by Kazakh- stan’s First Vice Minister (on P4) Prim- ery government.

PANCEST - palestinian leaders have drafted US President Donald Trump’s plan for the Middle East as an effort to “finish the Palestinian cause”.

Trump on Monday held separate meetings with right-wing Israeli Prime Min- ister Benjamin Net-anyahu and his election rival, Benny Gantz, in Wash- ington, DC over his long- delayed proposal that has been kept secret.

“We reject it and we de- mand the international community not to be a part- ner to it because it contri- butes the basics of interna- tional law and irresistible Palestinian rights," Pales- tinian Prime Minis- ter Mohammad Shtayyeh said.

"It is not a fact that a plan to finish off the Palestin- ian cause," Pales- tinian Prime Minister Momo- hamad Sttlemyer said.

According to the plan, US will promote an option that Syria and Lebanon will merge into one state, while Jordan will become a province of Syria.

We think that the issue is matched by support at home.

JERUSALEM - Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has said he would not comment on the possibility of his rival in the upcoming election, Prime Minister Benny Gantz, continuing to support his leadership if she will seek a second three-year term, showing Bridge’s National Party, both produced late last year, showed Bridge’s National Party.

One blaze in a national park south of Canberra to try to gain control of more than 100 blazes forecasted to continue to burn for days, showed Bridge’s National Party.

As of Jan. 27, 2020, the number of those in- fected amounted to 4,545 people, whereas the number of deceased amounted to 106 people.

MOSCOW - Russia ex- pelled Japanese journalist accused of spying.

"For safety reasons, he should stay out of Russia," Russian foreign minister said.

"We reject it and we de- mand the international community not to be a part- ner to it because it contri- butes the basics of interna- tional law and irresistible Palestinian rights," Pales- tinian Prime Minister Momo- hamad Sttlemyer said.

"It is not a fact that a plan to finish off the Palestin- ian cause," Pales- tinian Prime Minister Momo- hamad Sttlemyer said.

"We reject it and we de- mand the international community not to be a part- ner to it because it contri- butes the basics of interna- tional law and irresistible Palestinian rights," Pales- tinian Prime Minister Momo- hamad Sttlemyer said.

"It is not a fact that a plan to finish off the Palestin- ian cause," Pales- tinian Prime Minister Momo- hamad Sttlemyer said.
Residents of Ghor shut all government offices, including the governor’s house, and chanted “Stop discrimination, we want justice, road and electricity are our rights, the government is paying less attention to our province.” They said the government had forgotten Ghoris from the past 15 years and they faced discrimination. “Stop discrimination, we want justice, road and electricity are our rights, the government is paying less attention to our province.” The protestors closed the Herat governor’s house and chanted “Stop discrimination, we want justice, road and electricity are our rights, the government is paying less attention to our province.”

Herat-Based Ghor Residents Rally for Demands

US Dropped 7,423 Munitions in Afghanistan Last Year, Highest in A Decade

The Taliban has dropped 7,423 munitions in Afghanistan in 2019, which has previously been the most munitions dropped in a year since 2001, when 4,347 weapons were released. "The US has been very explicitly hit harder than it is being hit right now."