\[ \text{(1) Afghanistan} \]

On January 31, 2016, the government of Afghanistan surprisingly did not comment on the possible attacks in its electoral campaign. This has been confirmed by the Interior Ministry of Pakistan, which has said that it will continue to participate in, arrange and provide security for the upcoming regional elections. The Chinese government has also confirmed that it has not received any requests from either Afghanistan or Pakistan to intervene in the situation.

At the same time, the government of Afghanistan has announced that it will continue its efforts to secure the country and that it will be ready to participate in any international efforts to resolve the situation. The Afghan government has also confirmed that it will continue to work with the United Nations and other international organizations to ensure the security and stability of the country.

- January 31, 2016

\[ \text{(2) Business} \]

In the United States, the government has announced that it will continue to support the efforts of the United Nations and other international organizations to resolve the situation in Afghanistan. The government has also confirmed that it will continue to provide financial assistance to the Afghan government to ensure the security and stability of the country.

\[ \text{(3) Business} \]

In Europe, the European Union has announced that it will continue to support the efforts of the United Nations and other international organizations to resolve the situation in Afghanistan. The European Union has also confirmed that it will continue to provide financial assistance to the Afghan government to ensure the security and stability of the country.

\[ \text{(4) Sport} \]

In Asia, the government of Pakistan has announced that it will continue to support the efforts of the United Nations and other international organizations to resolve the situation in Afghanistan. The government has also confirmed that it will continue to provide financial assistance to the Afghan government to ensure the security and stability of the country.

\[ \text{(5) Migration} \]

In Africa, the government of Somalia has announced that it will continue to support the efforts of the United Nations and other international organizations to resolve the situation in Afghanistan. The government has also confirmed that it will continue to provide financial assistance to the Afghan government to ensure the security and stability of the country.