KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)

KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)

KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)

KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)

KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)

KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)

KABUL - Republic of Kazakhstan officially celebrated the 20th anniversary of Astana as the Capital city of the country.

More than 350 high ranking officials participated in the ceremony including Mohammad Ilyas Wahdat, Governor of Paktika province, and the Taliban chief negotiator, Mawlana Abdul Salam Hanafi.

The Taliban has denied reports about peace talks.

The peace activists also said they would end their sit-in protest outside the US embassy in Kabul on Friday and move on to the Russian embassy.

The activists said they had also decided to form a committee with the support of the people, to visit areas under Taliban control in order to encourage them to join the peace process.

Sealing a permanent cease-fire... (More on P4)...(9)

... (More on P4)...(10)