1) We Must, Gani, Is the Tajik counterpart, Emomalii Rahmon, Pakistani Prime Minister Imran Khan, and Uzbekistan’s President Shavkat Mirziyoyev met in Tashkent to discuss regional security and representations of the countries’ interests at various international forums.

The meeting’s agenda included, according to the proposed agenda, the situation in Afghanistan and the vacuum in the country’s internal administration. The Tajikistan delegation said it would be impossible to solve the problem of border crossings without the participation of Pakistan. The three leaders discussed the use of Gwadar Port as a transit point for Tajikistan and Uzbekistan. Uzbekistan is planning to construct a railway line from Gwadar to Kathfar in Afghanistan.

2) Tajikistan’s avalanche scenario that hit the north of the country on 15 June had claimed the lives of 27 people. Another 13 people were injured. The victims were mostly from the region of Khatlon.

3) Afghan health authorities have confirmed the country has registered eight cases of polio this year so far.

4) The average of 2,000 passengers per day is expected to be handled at the new Kabul airport.

5) Afghanistan’s National Army (ANA) is planning to invest $1.7 million in the construction of four concrete barriers near the border with Pakistan, to prevent terrorist attacks.

6) A cabinet reshuffle has taken place in Afghanistan, with the new minister of defence being General Abdul Raziq.

7) A new government has been formed in Afghanistan, with Abdullah Abdullah as the new vice-president. The new government has been formed following the resignation of former President Hamid Karzai.

8) The Afghan government has announced it will begin vaccinating children against polio in areas where the disease is prevalent.

9) The Afghan government has announced it will begin vaccinating children against polio in areas where the disease is prevalent.

10) The Afghan government has announced it will begin vaccinating children against polio in areas where the disease is prevalent.