ISIS and Taliban Suffer Heavy Casualties in Nangarhar Drone Strikes

JALALABAD - The Taliban insurgents and militants affiliated with the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) terrorist group suffered heavy losses during a series of drone strikes conducted in eastern Nangarhar province of Afghanistan.

The provincial police commandment said a statement of said that at least thirty-two militants were killed or wounded in the airstrike. The statement further added that the first airstrike was carried out in the vicinity of village of Aqil in Hakka Mina district, leaving at least fourteen militants dead and eleven more wounded, all belonging to the P205 network. The second airstrike was carried out on Friday in the vicinity of Gola area of Ghul Kel district, leaving — (Mawn P20).

The 32 Rebels Perished in Ongoing Balkh Offensive

KABUL - Security forces said the insurgents carried out an attack on the Ghorband highway and tried to kidnap a number of bus passengers. Parwan officials said the Taliban carried out the attack on the highway in the Jabal Sante district early Saturday.

The district police chief Mohammad Farzayee said the Taliban launched an attack from several directions at about 3 am against checkpoint.

The incident took place in Pule-E-absha district in Jabal Sante district and resulted in the chest of the highway to traffic. According to Farzayee, the Taliban also tried to kidnap bus passengers, traveling along the road but security forces were able to rescue them.

However, local farmers between the two were still ongoing later Saturday, officials said. According to them, the insurgents killed in the clash. Provincial police have not commented on the incident.

Tribalelligers and Taliban Fighters Clash Leaves Several Dead, Wounded

KABUL - Inflicting has been reported among the militants of Mullah Hebatullah Ahmadi and real Mullah Rasool fighters in northwest Nangarhar province of Afghanistan. According to the local government, at least eight insurgents were killed in the clashes.

The Afghan Connection Group. Other MCC players were also present. The one-on-one international captain, Kumar Sangakkara, of Sri Lanka, and Mohammad Yousuf, were playing alongside. The rise of the Afghan cricket team has been phenomenal over recent years. Most notably, the team is the match of Afghanistan. Afghanistan has been transformed into a full member of the ICC (International Cricket Council) Test Match nations. President of MCC Matthew Fleming has had close connections with Afghan cricket, and was a very loyal supporter of the game. "I have visited Afghanistan and seen the enthusiasm and skills of so many players there, both of senior teams, and of boys and girls," he said. MCC has supported the Afghan cricket since 2009. "MCC supports the game there by funding cricket," (Mawn on P20).

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

You may have agreed to too many meetings and have a string of events to go through. You have to find the golds, now or not while you still have some control. You will not be able to plan to stay at home today, the Capricorn Full Moon’s presence in your 8th House of Cancer indicates that work is still your top priority.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan 19)

People may play the authority card with you. It is highly unlikely that you will be happy about this, though you don’t like being put in such a position. Someone may play the authority card with you. It is highly unlikely that you will be happy about this, though you don’t like being put in such a position.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You might be at a point in your life where you would benefit from setting some time aside to make your career. However, don’t fall into the trap of focusing on what earns you money or power. The goal-oriented Capricorn Full Moon recharges your 4th House of Personal Values, the zone that governs your emotional needs.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct.22)

The intensity of He has been building for a while, offering you time to prepare for the current hectic pace of events. The Capricorn Full Moon over your 3rd House of Communication intensifies your need for meaningful connections with people. You will have a lot of information to you. You might have only so many hours in the day.

Scorpio (Oct 23-Nov.21)

You might want you to be able to share your current frustrations by leaving everything behind and making a mad dash. However, you have one foot stuck in your dreams, you will by all means have to look for an alternative route to get there.

Aries (Mar.22-Apr.20)

You may have agreed to too many meetings and have a string of events to go through. You have to find the golds, now or not while you still have some control. You will not be able to plan to stay at home today, the Capricorn Full Moon’s presence in your 8th House of Cancer indicates that work is still your top priority.

Taurus (Apr.20-May 20)

You are excellent in your efforts to make your travel dreams come true, even if your fantasy comes true. Now be prepared to do it in a way that you think you are smartest if you want results. The Capricorn Full Moon pierces through your 8th House of Distant Horizons, motivating you to take a chance.