NUG Inherited Corrupt System

KABUL - Chief Executive Officer Abdullah Abdullah once again blasted the past government, saying the National Unity Government (NUG) inherited a "corrupt system and deceptive politics." "Afghans must realize what happened during the past 14 years," Abdullah said during his trip to northeastern Badakhshan. Referring to scandals by former government officials about the collapse of the unity government, Abdullah warned if the government was overthrown, the Taliban would be in a position to use the situation. Abdullah remained against Taliban and announced that the government would not remain silent on killings of civilians. "If terrorists are brutally killing civilians, we will use all our strength against them," Abdullah warned. (ToloNews)

UN Links Financial Aid to Electoral Reforms

KANDAHAR - UN special representative for Afghanistan has linked donor countries financial support to Afghanistan’s electoral inclusive reforms. Nicholas Haverty raised the issue on the sidelines of a meeting with Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Abdullah Abdullah here in Kabul. A statement from the CEO’s office said the dignitaries also discussed security situations of the north following the recent visit of the US delegation to the provinces. Haverty urged government to introduce reforms in laws and electoral bodies and that without inclusive reforms the donor countries would. . . (More on p. 5)

Karzai Intends to Bring Down NUG

KABUL - The former Afghan President Hamid Karzai intends to bring down the National Unity Government (NUG) and led by President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani. A insider Western diplomat quoted in a report by Guardian, said adding that Karzai has been trying for months to overthrow Ghani’s government, with the intention of bringing it down. The diplomat whose identity was not disclosed in the report further added that an internal government would likely take over should Karzai succeed to bring down President Ghani’s government. Karzai would step forward to fill the vacuum as the self-styled father of the nation, the diplomat said, adding that President Ghani is aware of Karzai’s intentions but is keen. . . (More on p. 5)
