13 Rebels Dead in Nangarhar Airstrikes, Offensive

JALALABAD - At least 13 Taliban, including four Pakistanis, have been killed and 14 others wounded in a joint operation and ground offensive in the Khughr district of eastern Nangarhar Province, an official said on Wednesday.

Police spokesman Lt. Col. Hazrat Niaz Machinghzai told Pajhwok Afghan News the airstrikes carried out Tuesday night in the Khughr district killed four Pakistanis and a Taliban commander. He did not go into more details. A one-year-old child was among the dead, but a resident said that his body had been taken to the hospital and killed due to the Taliban firing in the area.
