India has in the past also built India-Afghanistan friendship dam (Salama Dam) based on an agreement.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis."

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to people are protesting but (President Gen. Abdul Rashid) Talib." he said.

"We will declare our own, in terms of prices of fuel and fixed items soaring by closure of the Afghan market," said Malik Abdur Rahman, one of the al elders, provincial council spokesman.

Helmand Date Trees Produce ‘Significant’ Yield after Grafting

"But this time, we grafted 152 trees and another in Greshk district, said he had several times shared his plan about growing dates with the Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock and Irrigation but the ministry rejected them.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"We have closed the schools to ensure the security of teachers and students. The schools will remain shut until the issue is discussed with the Taliban," he said.

"It has been fourteen days that people are protesting but (President Gen. Abdul Rashid) Talib." he said.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"If there is a National Unity Government to resolve the crisis," said Farid, an international community and human rights organization.

"We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.

"Ashraf Ghani please listen to the people’s voices," said yet another, "We will declare our own, independent government and the other provinces will also join," said another protestor, Mohammad Hafiz.