5. Kidnappers Arrested by NDS Agents Nangarhar

JALALABAD - The National Directorate of Security (NDS) personnel have arrested a group of five kidnappers in eastern Nangarhar province, an official said on Monday.

Attaullah Khogyani, the governor’s spokesman, told Pajhwok Afghan News that the kidnappers were involved in many cases in Jalalabad, the provincial capital. He said the detainees had confessed to their crimes.

The group leader said they were originally from the Kunar province and had a tendency of committing crimes.

Meanwhile, a statement from the governor house quoted theGoold as saying: “We have tasked our partners in the city to follow wealthy money-changers.”

The group leader said they were active in different districts, including on highways, kidnaping. (More on P5)

6. NPA Rejects Accusations of It Being Corrupt

KABUL - Senior politicians have in the past few days slammed the NPA and accused it of being guilty of large-scale corruption. An official from the National Procurement Authority (NPA) on Monday strongly dismissed allegations by politicians that the NPA was corrupt and called on those critics to provide evidence to support their claims.

These politicians must be held accountable for the allegations if they do not have evidence to this effect, said NPA anti-corruption specialist Babikhan Najm.

He assured the public that the NPA was conducting its job honestly and transparently.

The statements come just days after two senior Afghan political (More on P8)
