Islamic State Kidnaps 12 Demining Staff in Afghanistan

KABUL - At least 12 demining
men were kidnapped by members of the Jihadist group Islamic State (IS) in Afghanistan’s eastern province of Kunar, local officials confirmed today.

The incident occurred last night in the Dara-e-Kuch district of the Nangarhar province where workers from the Energy Conservation and Resources Agency in Afghanistan were clearing an area of
improved explosive devices.

Provincial Governor Ghani
Ministan’s spokesman said local government officials and tribal elders are in negotiations to free the men, Tolo News reported.

It is estimated that in Afghanistan there are more than 67,000 people with reduced capacities due to mine explosions which have invaded its territory for more than 30 years.

This situation was exacerbated by the exponential growth of violence since the 2001 invasion of the United States and the North Atlantic Organizations.

According to the Program of Ac-

Western province of Kunar, local officials confirmed today.

KABUL - At least 12 demining
men were kidnapped by members of the Jihadist group Islamic State (IS) in Afghanistan’s eastern province of Kunar, local officials confirmed today.

The incident occurred last night in the Dara-e-Kuch district of the Nangarhar province where workers from the Energy Conservation and Resources Agency in Afghanistan were clearing an area of
improved explosive devices.

Provincial Governor Ghani
Ministan’s spokesman said local government officials and tribal elders are in negotiations to free the men, Tolo News reported.

It is estimated that in Afghanistan there are more than 67,000 people with reduced capacities due to mine explosions which have invaded its territory for more than 30 years.

This situation was exacerbated by the exponential growth of violence since the 2001 invasion of the United States and the North Atlantic Organizations.

According to the Program of Ac-

German Authorities

Want to Bring Afghan Deportee Back, Review Existing Practice

BERLIN - Following a wave of scandals, which include a bribery investigation and a deportee sucide, the country’s Interior Mini-

Sakina Ahmadi, a government official, said on Thursday that Russia should apologize for invading Afghanistan.

He said that Moscow should tender an apology for the recognition of the communist leadership and the occupation of Afghanistan.

Ambassador Abdul Qayyum Kochi said on Wednesday that the Afghan ambassador’s statement that Russia should apologize for invading Afghanistan.

He said that Moscow should tender an apology for the recognition of the communist leadership and the occupation of Afghanistan.

Ambassador Abdul Qayyum Kochi said on Wednesday that the Afghan ambassador’s statement that Russia should apologize for invading Afghanistan.

He said that Moscow should tender an apology for the recognition of the communist leadership and the occupation of Afghanistan.

Ambassador Abdul Qayyum Kochi said on Wednesday that the Afghan ambassador’s statement that Russia should apologize for invading Afghanistan.

He said that Moscow should tender an apology for the recognition of the communist leadership and the occupation of Afghanistan.