KABUL - Presidential Advisor Ghani at an international symposium on smart city in Kabul on Saturday said that the in-tra-Afghan negotiations – between the Afghan government and the Taliban – will begin within the next few weeks, saying “peace is our goal and we have a strong will for it”. Ghani condemned a recent attack near the Kabul University on Friday and said that targeting Afghan civilians, universi-ties, and children means targeting the religion, civilization and national dig-nity of Afghanistan. “Why are you targeting innocent civil-i-tians while [tra-Afghan] negotiations will begin within the next few days or weeks?” Ghani asked.

KABUL - Almost a week after the Afghan government released at least 400 Taliban prisoners out of 887 inmates to be released in the Kabul University on Friday and said that targeting Afghan civilians, universi-ties, and children means targeting the religion, civilization and national dig-nity of Afghanistan. “Why are you targeting innocent civil-i-tians while [tra-Afghan] negotiations will begin within the next few days or weeks?” Ghani asked.

He said that the Afghan government has not asked the Taliban to surrender, but it has asked them to talk. “We have not asked the Taliban to sur-renner, we asked for negotiations for an enduring peace. They should accept [the call for talks],” he said. This comes as according to US Depart-ment of State. (More on P6-03)

US General Assures Continued Support to Afghan Forces

KARUL - Chief Executive Abdullah Abdullah on Saturday met with the Commander of the US Central Command, Gen. Kenneth McKenzie, and discussed the ongoing peace process, the upcom-ing presidential elections and regional issues, Ab-dullah’s office said in a statement. In this meeting, Gen. McKenzie assured the US forces continued support to the Afghan forces, the statement said. The US general praised the improvement in the capacity of the Afghan National Defense and Se-curity forces, the statement said. He said that he has also served in Afghanistan and that he appreciates the sacrifices of Afghan forces in the fight against terrorism. Meanwhile, Abdullah and Gen. McKenzie’s visit to Kabul is a sign of “cooperation and friendship” between Afghanistan and the US “in the fight against common enemies and threats”. Abdullah said the Afghan forces are defending their country against threats by terrorists and that they are supported. (More on P6-03)

He said the near future, Chief Executive of Afghanistan, Abdullah Ab-dullah, said he would move to a goodwill, not an election cam-paign. Earlier this month, Presi-dent Ghani an-nounced to re-lease 887 Taliban prisoners as part of the grand Jirga del-e-gation. The release of Taliban prisoners is a goodwill gesture, but it will lose its actual impact if it takes the form of a [election] cam-paign,” Abdullah said at the Council of Ministers meeting on Monday. Abdullah also said that the peace process does not belong to a person, but it is the will of the people of Afghanistan. “Afghans want peace and a healthy representation should be made of the will of the people of Afghanistan,” said Abdullah, who recently men-tioned that the Taliban is the main hurdle on the way of peace efforts in the country.
