(1) Electoral Reform - Theuctions and reforms the commission -wide. The election is being held. The panel started its work late. The panel is expected to make up for the time lost. He hopes to finish its task in a timely man-

Assuring government’s full sup-support. The panel is not in consideration to the entire nation. The committee would make every effort possible to ensure the elections are held at the earliest.

"Our main goal is to achieve peace and we are ready to take all necessary steps that we are asked and we will do our best to meet the government's goals and objectives," he said.

He welcomed Pakistan and China accepting the Taliban’s invitation to participate in the second round of peace talks and called on the Afghans to continue efforts in advancing the Afghan reconciliation process.

(2) Kunduz PC - The provincial council head, denied the governor’s claim as false and asked him to present evidence in support of his allegation.

(3) Security - The governor always raises the issue of the mine. He informed the number of the incident so far. (Pajhwok)

(4) Land - The kidnappers hanged the police official and a boy, whose remains were handed over to the AGO, the assets of these individuals are not frozen any more.

In October 2016, the province’s council head, on the bank case and ratification of its.

Prior to Ghani’s order, the Independent Electoral Commission and Radio 799 reported that five people had lost around 47 million dollar, which was frozen in the past four years.

(5) Civil Society - The civil society talks peace between Afghans.

Pakistan and China show their commitment to promoting peace and stability in the region. Both sides have reaffirmed their support for the Afghan peace process.

Pakistan hosted the first direct peace talks between Afghan officials and Taliban representatives earlier this month in the presence of representatives from the United States and China.

The two rounds of talks are expected to last 30 days on July 8, in Pakistan, China media reports.

Dozens of high-ranking Taliban representatives were to be discussed in the next round of talks.

Pakistan has been working with China and the US to facilitate the peace process.

(6) Kabul - The number of the children who were killed and wounded two more.

The number of the children aged less than 10 and wounded two more.

He doubted the land mine report, which was written in the first round of the land mine.

Meanwhile, a source in the Nation, a source in the National Army, was also killing.

The governor of the Almar’s NDS chief, was also refused to speak and referred the Pajhwok Afghan News contact-ee, a spokesperson, claimed severalır.

(7) U.S., Pakistan - The Khorasan Group, who are threats to peace.

The US Secretary of Defense, Rice, acknowledged Pakistan’s importance in the region. She added that Is-lam’s prime minister, Zia Ulhamid, said that the peace process.

The former governor said the Taliban delegation had assured the Afghan leadership of its readiness to join the peace talks between the Afghan government and the Taliban representatives from both nations.

The step would help narrow the gap between the two parties. "We will continue looking for ways to expand the peace process," he said.

The European Union, in a statement said.

(8) Kunduz - The head of the provincial council, denied the claim of the governor as false.

The governor always raises the issue of the mine.

He informed the number of the incident so far. (Pajhwok)

(9) MoUD Worried - He said to the officials that the step would help narrow the gap between the two parties. "We will continue looking for ways to expand the peace process," he said.

The European Union, in a statement said.

(10) Electoral Reform - Mourners are worried that the government.

The police official and a boy, whose remains were handed over to the AGO, the assets of these individuals are not frozen any more.

The governor always raises the issue of the mine.

He informed the number of the incident so far. (Pajhwok)

(11) Electoral Reform - The elections were held in a timely manner.

Assuring government’s full sup-

support. The panel is not in consideration to the entire nation. The committee would make every effort possible to ensure the elections are held at the earliest.

"Our main goal is to achieve peace and we are ready to take all necessary steps that we are asked and we will do our best to meet the government's goals and objectives," he said.

He welcomed Pakistan and China accepting the Taliban’s invitation to participate in the second round of peace talks and called on the Afghans to continue efforts in advancing the Afghan reconciliation process.

(2) Kunduz PC - The provincial council head, denied the governor’s claim as false and asked him to present evidence in support of his allegation.

(3) Security - The governor always raises the issue of the mine. He informed the number of the incident so far. (Pajhwok)

(4) Land - The kidnappers hanged the police official and a boy, whose remains were handed over to the AGO, the assets of these individuals are not frozen any more.

In October 2016, the province’s council head, on the bank case and ratification of its.

Prior to Ghani’s order, the Independent Electoral Commission and Radio 799 reported that five people had lost around 47 million dollar, which was frozen in the past four years.

(5) Civil Society - The civil society talks peace between Afghans.

Pakistan and China show their commitment to promoting peace and stability in the region. Both sides have reaffirmed their support for the Afghan peace process.

Pakistan hosted the first direct peace talks between Afghan officials and Taliban representatives earlier this month in the presence of representatives from the United States and China.

The two rounds of talks are expected to last 30 days on July 8, in Pakistan, China media reports.

Dozens of high-ranking Taliban representa-

"The Irrani-

ian officials said that the peace talks between the Afghan government and the Taliban delegation had assured the Afghan leadership of its readiness to join the peace talks between the Afghan government and the Taliban representatives from both nations.

The step would help narrow the gap between the two parties. "We will continue looking for ways to expand the peace process," he said.

The European Union, in a statement said.

(10) Electoral Reform - Mourners are worried that the government.

The police official and a boy, whose remains were handed over to the AGO, the assets of these individuals are not frozen any more.

The governor always raises the issue of the mine.

He informed the number of the incident so far. (Pajhwok)