day blamed the local government in Badakhshan province on Saturday.

Tagab district. The outpost belonged to local police in Badakhshan.

The incident took place when a group of Taliban attacked a military camp in Badakhshan province.

KABUL - Medecins Sans Frontieres (MSF) reopened a small clinic in Afghanistan, on Saturday, their officials said.

Kabul police chief and head of the Criminal Investigation Department informed regarding the latest developments during a press conference.

The six-member Afghan girls’ team took part in a three-day competition participated by students from 162 countries in the United States, saying they represented ‘a new image of Afghanistan to the world.’

KABUL - At least three hundred and twenty three people were arrested on various criminal charges over a period of almost one month from capital Kabul.

The first step toward providing more medical assistance in Kandahar, Shirin Allah Durrani, head of programs for MSF in Afghanistan, told Reuters. "And for us it’s an important step. Since the air attack by America." (More on P4,8)

Residents Want Probe into Killing of Badakhshani Forces

The incident took place when a group of Taliban militants attacked a security outpost belonging to local police in Tagab district.

The first time a Taliban militant attack in Tagab district in the northeastern Badakhshan province on Saturday.

A number of residents of Tagab district in the northeastern Badakhshan province on Saturday blamed the local government for its failure to protect residents from the attacks of Taliban militants.

KABUL - The price of gold edged up while that of Kazakhstani flour dropped during the outgoing week in Kabul, market sources as said on Saturday.

Food tractor union head Fazal Rahman told Pajhwok Afghan News the price of a 5kg Kazakhstani flour fell from 1,310 aez to 1,304 aez because of increased imports. However, he said, the rate of other food items remained steady. The whole sale price of a 50-kg Kazakhstani flour fell from 1,120 aez to 1,100 aez. The wholesale price of a 24-kg bag of Pakistani rice accounted for 1,120 aez, same as last week’s.

KABUL - The Taliban insurgency has killed 70 civilians who were kidnapped on Thursday in Shah Wali district of southern Kandahar province.

The six-member Afghan girls’ team took part in a three-day competition participated by students from 162 countries in the United States, saying they represented ‘a new image of Afghanistan to the world’.