UN, Iran, India Condemn Kabul Attack that Killed 36 Civilians

KABUL - UNAMA said in a statement that attacks deliberately targeting and killing civilians is a war crime.

The office of the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA) condemned today’s deadly Kabul suicide bombing in Afghanistan (UNAMA) condemn.

“The UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA) has strongly condemned the Taliban suicide attack in Kabul on Monday that left at least 36 people dead and dozens of others wounded,” the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan said in a statement Monday.

In a statement on Monday, the UN body called for an immediate end to the ongoing violence in the country that is claiming the lives of so many civilians.

“The UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA) has strongly condemned the Taliban suicide attack, which has occurred in the context of a countrywide intensification of violence impacting...”

US Denounces Kabul Suicide Bombing

KABUL - The US Embassy in Kabul on Monday strongly condemned the Taliban’s suicide bombing in western Kabul, according a statement from the embassy.

“This deadly attack on bravest and dedicated Afghan public servants shows blatant disrespect for human life and the rights of all Afghans to live free of violence and free from terrorism,” the statement read.

It added the US stood with the people of Afghanistan at this time of tragedy and reiterated its commitment to helping them build a more secure and prosperous future for their country.

“We offer our deepest sympathy to everyone affected by this terrible act of cowardly violence.”

At least 24 people were killed and more than 42 others wounded as a result of a powerful suicide car bombing.

The blast took place at about 6:40am local time after a suicide car bomber targeted a bus carrying the employees of the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum.

Three vehicles and 15 shops were also damaged in the attack, the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum said.

In addition to those killed, over 40 others were wounded as a result of the car bombing.

Deputy Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Haji Mohammad Mokhtar’s residence in Kabul on Monday.

The deadly attack – claimed by the Taliban – was against Islamic teachings, human rights and civilized norms, President Ashraf Ghani said in a statement from his office, hours after Monday’s bombing.

He added: “The terrorists hell-bent on grave crimes have once again committed an understandable act by targeting a ministry, carrying civilian officials, martyring many of them and inflicting injuries on others.”

The statement went on to say heavy casualties on the battlefield, had cost to such attacks that proved their cowardice, the president observed.

“The criminals have once again proven they always trample on Islamic teachings and human rights.”

Ghani offered his sympathies and condolences to the families of the victims, wishing a speedy recovery for the injured and praying for the deceased souls.

Mof Spokesman Najib Danish told reporters at the site the motive behind the attack was yet to be ascertained.

Presidential Palace Condemns Kabul Suicide Bombing

KABUL - The Presidential Palace has denounced the suicide car bombing in Kabul that left at least 24 people dead and more than 42 others wounded near Department of National Security (DNS) office.

Qari Rahman Saeed, HIA spokesman, told Pajhwok Afghan News Monday that at least 36 people were killed in a suicide bombing in PD3 of Kabul city.

The Monday Explosion Kills an Employee of Afghanistan Group of Newspapers

Within 11 years, he came to office earlier than any other staff members and helped them honestly. All staff members loved him and called him “Uncle Hamid”.

They will never forget his nice morality, good attitude and sweet memories.

Last year, the audit commission in an investigation found that they are paying money on highways; the plan was to establish a center through which the income of municipalities and the transport sector will be collected.

The High Economic Council recently decided to establish a center where revenue will be collected.

In addition to these killed, over 40 others were wounded as a result of the car bombing.

The attack was against Islamic teachings, human rights and civilized norms, President Ashraf Ghani said in a statement from his office, hours after Monday’s bombing.

He added: “The terrorists hell-bent on grave crimes have once again committed an understandable act by targeting a ministry, carrying civilian officials, martyring many of them and inflicting injuries on others.”

The statement went on to say heavy casualties on the battlefield, had cost to such attacks that proved their cowardice, the president observed.

“The criminals have once again proven they always trample on Islamic teachings and human rights.”

The presidential palace said in a statement Monday that the attack was against Islamic teachings, human rights and civilized norms.

The High Economic Council recently decided to establish a center where revenue will be collected in a result of a powerful suicide car bombing.

The blast took place at about 6:40am local time after a suicide car bomber targeted a bus carrying the employees of the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum.

Three vehicles and 15 shops were also damaged in the attack, the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum said.

At least 24 people were killed and more than 42 others wounded near Department of National Security (DNS) office.

The Monday Explosion Kills an Employee of Afghanistan Group of Newspapers

Within 11 years, he came to office earlier than any other staff members and helped them honestly. All staff members loved him and called him “Uncle Hamid”.

They will never forget his nice morality, good attitude and sweet memories.

The presidential palace said in a statement Monday that the attack was against Islamic teachings, human rights and civilized norms.

The High Economic Council recently decided to establish a center where revenue will be collected in a result of a powerful suicide car bombing.

The blast took place at about 6:40am local time after a suicide car bomber targeted a bus carrying the employees of the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum.

Three vehicles and 15 shops were also damaged in the attack, the Ministry of Mines and Petroleum said.

At least 24 people were killed and more than 42 others wounded near Department of National Security (DNS) office.

The Monday Explosion Kills an Employee of Afghanistan Group of Newspapers

Within 11 years, he came to office earlier than any other staff members and helped them honestly. All staff members loved him and called him “Uncle Hamid”.

They will never forget his nice morality, good attitude and sweet memories.