JALALABAD - All girls’ schools have been closed in Jalalabad, the capital of eastern Nangarhar province, after Daesh group posted threats on social media, officials said on Tuesday.

The provincial government says the schools were closed two days ahead of the summer vacations, however over the past few days, threats have been threatening girls schools on social media.

Education department officials said the closures of schools came in light of a decision to avoid possible security incidents in the city.

KABUL - The envoy promised China’s continued support with Vice-President Sarwar Danish.

China’s private sector would invest in Afghanistan, says the new ambassador of the neighboring country.

Danish also referred to China’s significant role in projects such as TAPI, CASA-1000, etc.

Nangarhar province, after Daesh group

The lawmakers also denounced Monday’s

Participants of the gathering were targeted by a suicide bomber as they prepared to leave the Loya Jirga tent in the capital.

Senators hail scholars’

Fatwa on War as a Bold Step

KABUL - Some Meshrano Jirga members on Tuesday hailed ulema’s fatwa on the Afghan conflict as an unprecedented move.

The lawmakers also denounced Monday’s suicide attack on the religious scholars at an event against Islamic teachings and humanity.

More than 2,000 Afghan clerics on Monday participated in the Monday

Jalalabad schools were closed one day ahead of the summer vacations, however over the past few days, threats have been threatening girls schools on social media.

Education department officials said the closures of schools came in light of a decision to avoid possible security incidents in the city.

Insecurity Called Big Hurdle to China’s Investment

Insecurity is the main impediment to Chinese private sector’s investment in Afghanistan, says the new ambassador of the neighboring country.

Shanghai summit’s outcome.

He sounded optimistic about the engagements between the two countries were growing,

At the upcoming Shanghai summit, political, economic and regional cooperation would be discussed between leaders of both countries. He sounded optimistic about the engagements between the two countries were growing.

The envoy promised China’s continued support with Vice-President Sarwar Danish.

China’s private sector would invest in Afghanistan, says the new ambassador of the neighboring country.

Danish also referred to China’s significant role in projects such as TAPI, CASA-1000, etc.

Nangarhar province, after Daesh group posted threats on social media, officials said on Tuesday.

The provincial government says the schools were closed two days ahead of the summer vacations, however over the past few days, threats have been threatening girls schools on social media.

Education department officials said the closures of schools came in light of a decision to avoid possible security incidents in the city.

Insecurity Called Big Hurdle to China’s Investment

Insecurity is the main impediment to Chinese private sector’s investment in Afghanistan, says the new ambassador of the neighboring country.

Shanghai summit’s outcome.

He sounded optimistic about the engagements between the two countries were growing,

At the upcoming Shanghai summit, political, economic and regional cooperation would be discussed between leaders of both countries. He sounded optimistic about the engagements between the two countries were growing.

The envoy promised China’s continued support with Vice-President Sarwar Danish.

China’s private sector would invest in Afghanistan, says the new ambassador of the neighboring country.