WASHINGTON - The United Nations Monday has expressed its disappointment over the Taliban’s rejection of the extension of the ceasefire announced by the Afghan government, saying the war-weary people of Afghanistan deserve peace.

“We’re obviously disappointed that they (the Taliban) have not accepted the Government’s offer of continued ceasefire,” the UN Secretary-General’s Spokesman, Stephane Dujarric, said in response to a question at the regular noon briefing in New York on Monday.

“We think the people of Afghanistan are deserving of peace and of reconciliation,” he added. Afghan President Ashraf Ghani announced an extension of the ceasefire ...

KABUL - Italy’s foreign minister has assured of his country’s support to Afghanistan in protection of its historic relics and monuments, a statement from the Chief Executive Office said on Tuesday.

The envoy, Enzo Moavero Milanesi, reiterated the commitment during a meeting with CEO Dr. Abdullah Abdullah, who is on a two-day official visit to the European Nation. Milanesi reiterated Italy would continue its presence in Afghanistan and would continue supporting the war-torn country.

He termed relations between the two countries as friendly and based on mutual interest and shared values.

The CEO thanked Rome for its active presence and constructive role in Afghanistan and hoped mutual cooperation between the two nations would continue to grow in different fields.

Abdullah reassured the unity government’s commitment to heading fair and transparent parliamentary and district council elections.

Afghanistan enjoyed cordial relationship with its neighboring countries, said Abdullah, hoping Pakistan would implement its promises of cooperation in the war against terrorism.

The Italian foreign minister said peace and stability in Afghanistan are important for the country’s economic development and integration into the region, an issue Italy gave “huge importance” to. He also assured Italian soldiers would remain in Afghanistan as part of NATO’s Resolute Support (RS).
