May peace negotiations between the US-2 and the Taliban are being conducted in Doha, Afghanistan, were women’s rights are not being considered. We urge the State Department to protect Afghan women and girls, as they are being denied their rights in the Pashto language.

The Afghan government was the only one that appealed to the Taliban for their voices to be heard and today that the Taliban have finally committed to sit at the table.

However, it is a step in the right direction as it means that the women’s participation is important.

And the meetings continue to take place in Doha, Qatar.

Afghan women and girls achieved their rights in the Pashto language.

The Afghan government also repeatedly has asked the Taliban to sit at the table and for their voices to be heard.

And there was a demand for peace and we support that demand," Butler said.

The Taliban said they said that the negotiations will continue at an unspecified rate. (AP)
