Mohiuddin Khairkhwa, Farah lands from the Taliban,” said Acting Defense Minister Asadullah Khalid on Monday.

According to a statement by the provincial police chief, “We have made a lot of success but there is more to do.” Defense Minister Asadullah Khalid said: “We are here to listen to your challenges and act on those challenges.” NDS Commander Gen. BG Koshal Sadat said the purpose of the trip was to meet with the security pillars.

“One member of the network was wounded and three others were arrested in the operation, the statement said. A number of weapons and explosives were also seized during the operation, the statement added.”

One of the residents of the province said, “We are happy to see the security forces are working hard to maintain peace in the region.”

In most cases, people are not interested in sending their daughters to schools. The Taliban, however, have started schools for girls. “We are proud to see the girls are coming to school,” said a resident.

A number of weapons and explosives were also recovered in the op-eration. The operation was carried out in Sabari district in Khost province.

KANDAHAR CITY - Haji Cal Mohammad Shyri, who is also known as Saffron Baba in Khadman district of southern Kandahar province, says saffron crop requires less water and labor and gives satisfaction to the people compared to poppy. He said the Taliban pretended to stop girls education in the district. He said the Taliban pretended to stop girls education in the district. He said the Taliban pretended to stop girls education in the district. He said the Taliban pretended to stop girls education in the district.

One member of the network was wounded and three others were arrested in the operation, the statement said. A number of weapons and explosives were also seized during the operation, the statement added.

One of the residents of the province said, “We are happy to see the security forces are working hard to maintain peace in the region.”

One of the residents of the province said, “We are happy to see the security forces are working hard to maintain peace in the region.”