KABUL - Some Wolesi Jirga members on Tuesday warned not to attend future sessions as a result of continued differences over the election of speaker for the lower house.

The 17th session of the lower house ended without any result as differences between the members continued and could not be resolved.

Around 130 lawmakers were present in the house earlier today but the number..(More on P4)...(2)

Lawmakers Warn Not to Attend Future Sessions of WJ If Deadlock Continues

Kabul, Islamabad Agree on High-Level Exchanges

ISLAMABAD - Pakistan and Afghanistan have agreed high-level exchanges between the neighbours are essential for strengthening bilateral co-operation.

The agreement came at a meeting between Foreign Minister Shah Mehmood Qureshi and Afghanistan’s Deputy ..(More on P4)...(3)

India Pledges 1000 More Scholarships for the Afghan Students

KABUL - The government of India has pledged one thousand more scholarships for the Afghan students.

According to a statement released by Higher Education Ministry, the Indian Ambassador to Afghanistan Yatay Kumar on Monday informed regarding the 1000 additional scholarships.

The statement further added that Ambassador Kumar made the ..(More on P4)...(4)

Kabul, Islamabad Agree on High-Level Exchanges

US Envoy Working on Four ‘Pillars’ for Afghan Peace

A US State Department spokesperson says Khalilzad had lengthy discussions with President Ghani.

KABUL - The US Special Envoy Zalmay Khalilzad is working on four important issues regarding the Afghan peace process which include the timeline for US forces withdrawal from Afghanistan, counterterrorism assurances, intra-Afghan dialogue and the reducing violence, a US official said on Tuesday.

“You know, we have four pillars that ambassador [Zalmay] Khalilzad is working on in Afghanistan: troops withdrawal, counterterrorism assurances and cooperation, intra-Afghan dialogue and reduction of violence,” Morgan Ortagus, ..(More on P4)...(1)

KABUL - Some Wolesi Jirga members on Tuesday warned not to attend future sessions as a result of continued differences over the election of speaker for the lower house.

The 17th session of the lower house ended without any result as differences between the members continued and could not be resolved.

Around 130 lawmakers were present in the house earlier today but the number..(More on P4)...(2)

Lawmakers Warn Not to Attend Future Sessions of WJ If Deadlock Continues

Kabul, Islamabad Agree on High-Level Exchanges

ISLAMABAD - Pakistan and Afghanistan have agreed high-level exchanges between the neighbours are essential for strengthening bilateral co-operation.

The agreement came at a meeting between Foreign Minister Shah Mehmood Qureshi and Afghanistan’s Deputy ..(More on P4)...(3)

India Pledges 1000 More Scholarships for the Afghan Students

KABUL - The government of India has pledged one thousand more scholarships for the Afghan students.

According to a statement released by Higher Education Ministry, the Indian Ambassador to Afghanistan Yatay Kumar on Monday informed regarding the 1000 additional scholarships.

The statement further added that Ambassador Kumar made the ..(More on P4)...(4)

Kabul, Islamabad Agree on High-Level Exchanges

US Envoy Working on Four ‘Pillars’ for Afghan Peace

A US State Department spokesperson says Khalilzad had lengthy discussions with President Ghani.

KABUL - The US Special Envoy Zalmay Khalilzad is working on four important issues regarding the Afghan peace process which include the timeline for US forces withdrawal from Afghanistan, counterterrorism assurances, intra-Afghan dialogue and the reducing violence, a US official said on Tuesday.

“You know, we have four pillars that ambassador [Zalmay] Khalilzad is working on in Afghanistan: troops withdrawal, counterterrorism assurances and cooperation, intra-Afghan dialogue and reduction of violence,” Morgan Ortagus, ..(More on P4)...(1)