Afghanistan Wants Durable Peace with Pakistan: Ghani

President Ashraf Ghani said on Tuesday a roadmap to peace had been charted out as Afghanistan desired durable peace with Pakistan.

Mattis Says Options on Afghanistan to be Presented to Trump ‘Very Soon’

WASHINGTON - U.S. Defense Secretary Jim Mattis said on Monday he would present options on Afghanistan to President Donald Trump “very soon,” adding the strategy would take a regional approach rather than looking at the war-torn country in isolation.

The situation in Afghanistan, which U.S. military officials acknowledge is in a stalemate almost 16 years since the war started, (More on P4)...(2)

KABUL - The United States has congratulated the Afghan government for a recent Kabul Process summit, saying all Afghans showed tremendous courage hosting delegations from 26 nations and international organizations given past week tragedies.

“Global friends of Afghanistan came to Kabul on what was (More on P4)...(3)

KABUL - The Abu Dhabi Crown Prince made the pledge at a convention in the U.S where other donors included the governments of Japan, Germany and Monaco.

Sheikh Mohammed, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and (More on P4)...(6)