KABUL - US Special Representative Zalmay Khalilzad has discussed the Afghanistan peace process with a top World Bank official. Khalilzad has called on Taliban to respect the will of the Afghan people, insisting that the Afghan people want peace. The Afghan demand reduction in violence and the Taliban should respect the will of the Afghan people,” he added.

Meanwhile, Ambassador Kay said NATO Allies are working closely with the Government of Afghanistan and the people of Afghanistan to bring about the conditions for a lasting peace. Ambassador Kay further added “NATO Allies and partners are united and strong and firm in their commitment to continue to support Afghans at this historic moment when they reach out to the battlefield what the Afghans want, which is peace.”

He also added “And we call upon the Taliban to sit in an intra-Afghan dialogue with all Afghans across the country should be encouraged.”

KABUL - The NATO Senior Civilian Representative in Afghanistan Ambassador Nicholas Kay has called on the Taliban to respect the will of the Afghan people, insisting that the Afghan people want peaceful solutions and reducing security costs. “Such a peace can also be a springboard for regional connectivity, development and economic integration. I was encouraged by what I heard. All Afghans across the country should be encouraged.” (Pajhwok)

The ex-commissioners are accused of fraud and corruption. The former election commissioners were removed from their posts in February. The ex-commissioners are accused of fraud and corruption in last year’s parliamentary elections and reducing security costs. “Such a peace can also be a springboard for regional connectivity, development and economic integration. I was encouraged by what I heard. All Afghans across the country should be encouraged.” (Pajhwok)

The case of former election commission was made public and was sent to the Attorney General’s Office for further proceedings.

The members of the Independent Election Commission and the Independent Electoral Complaints Commission were removed from their posts in February. The ex-commissioners are accused of fraud and corruption in last year’s parliamentary elections and reducing security costs. “Such a peace can also be a springboard for regional connectivity, development and economic integration. I was encouraged by what I heard. All Afghans across the country should be encouraged.” (Pajhwok)

Afghan athletes Win Nine Medals at Asian Taekwondo Championship

KABUL - The national taekwondo fighters from Afghanistan topped the Asian Taekwondo Championship – CI in India by getting nine gold medals, including four gold medals, three silver, and two bronze medals.

The International Taekwondo Federation has adopted a new scoring system for the competition. It has considered 10 for the champion and no score for the second runner. Taekwondo fighters from Afghanistan, Thailand, India, Australia, Zimbabwe, Nepal, Kazakhstan, Oman, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Japan, Croatia, Syria, and Bangladesh have attended the event which has been held in the city of Hyderabad in India. Afghan athletes got four gold medals, three silver and two bronze medals in this competition.

"I congratulate the nation and the players for this victory. Another round of the competitions will be held today (Saturday)," said Najibullah, head of Afghanistan’s Taekwondo Federation.

"We had a strong team. There were strong teams in the championship, including Iran, Pakistan, and Australia. Our athletes won six matches and achieved a gold medal," said Abdul Rahim Alizai, acting coach of the national taekwondo team.

Meanwhile, Husein Lutfi, Ramish Husaini, and Mustafa Qarz won gold medals. Meenawali, Hekmatullah Zain, Ahmad Siyar Khalqi and Nazar Ahmad Abdurahmanzai won bronze medals.

The case of former election commission was made public and was sent to the Attorney General’s Office for further proceedings. The ex-commissioners are accused of fraud and corruption. The former election commissioners were removed from their posts in February. The ex-commissioners are accused of fraud and corruption in last year’s parliamentary elections and reducing security costs. “Such a peace can also be a springboard for regional connectivity, development and economic integration. I was encouraged by what I heard. All Afghans across the country should be encouraged.” (Pajhwok)

The Afghan people demand peace. The Afghan demand reduction in violence. And the Taliban should respect the will of the Afghan people.” (KP)

The Afghan people demand peace. The Afghan demand reduction in violence. And the Taliban should respect the will of the Afghan people.” (KP)

The Afghan people demand peace. The Afghan demand reduction in violence. And the Taliban should respect the will of the Afghan people.” (KP)