Politicians Back Diplomatic Solution to Torkham Issue

KARUL - Political and national leaders, who called on President Ashraf Ghani yesterday after supporting the government’s stance to resolve the Torkham border tension with Pakistan, also supported the position of Afghanistan and Pakistan over the construction of a gate on the Torkham border crossing by Pakistani forces.

Pakistan has moved more troops and weapons to the Durand Line.

PESHAWAR - Aspansh Khan, who was killed in the attack on the Pakistan Army, who was in Zajalabak and was injured in an explosion on his motorcycle was in the Zajalabak area when he was killed by a roadside bomb. The attack was carried out by the Taliban with the aim of disrupting the construction works.

The Foreign Secretary stressed the need to undertake immediate steps to strengthen effective border management. The Foreign Secretary said that the Afghan government should undertake construction works on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

Pakistan has pressed their support for the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

The US urged the government of Afghanistan and Pakistan to continue the constructions on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

The US strongly urged the Afghan government to support the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

Pakistan has pressed their support for the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

The US urged the government of Afghanistan and Pakistan to continue the constructions on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

The US strongly urged the Afghan government to support the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

Pakistan has pressed their support for the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

The US urged the government of Afghanistan and Pakistan to continue the constructions on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

The US strongly urged the Afghan government to support the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

Pakistan has pressed their support for the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

The US urged the government of Afghanistan and Pakistan to continue the constructions on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

The US strongly urged the Afghan government to support the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

Pakistan has pressed their support for the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

The US urged the government of Afghanistan and Pakistan to continue the constructions on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

The US strongly urged the Afghan government to support the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

Pakistan has pressed their support for the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.

The US urged the government of Afghanistan and Pakistan to continue the constructions on the border line to facilitate the movement of people and goods.

The US strongly urged the Afghan government to support the talks, which were held in line with the Shura and if the international community agreed to those talks, we would have never pressed for talks. If we were not averse to talks, we would have never pressed for talks.