Afghanistan to Launch Online Marketplace

KABUL - Afghanistan plans to launch its first online marketplace to allow local businesses to extend their reach to global markets. The online platform known as "Afghanistan Market Place," will allow businesses to enter international trade with ease.

Pentagon Reports of Daesh Preparations to Confront Taliban

WASHINGTON - A recent report released by the Pentagon states that Daesh's military strength continues to grow, posing a significant threat to the security of the region.

Kabul - Afghan President Ashraf Ghani delivered his Ramazan message on Thursday and wished all Afghans for a peaceful and prosperous Ramazan.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced its intention to intensify efforts to reach a peaceful resolution in the ongoing conflict.

Pentagon Reports of Daesh Preparations to Confront Taliban

WASHINGTON - A recent report released by the Pentagon states that Daesh's military strength continues to grow, posing a significant threat to the security of the region.

Kabul - Afghan President Ashraf Ghani delivered his Ramazan message on Thursday and wished all Afghans for a peaceful and prosperous Ramazan.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced its intention to intensify efforts to reach a peaceful resolution in the ongoing conflict.

Insecurity in Farah Leads United Nations to Dispatch 100+ Families

MAIMANA - Constant insecurity in the northern Balkh province has left about 150 families displaced in recent months. The United Nations has dispatched 100+ families to provide them with much-needed assistance.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

KABUL - The Afghan government has announced its intention to intensify efforts to reach a peaceful resolution in the ongoing conflict.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced its intention to intensify efforts to reach a peaceful resolution in the ongoing conflict.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced its intention to intensify efforts to reach a peaceful resolution in the ongoing conflict.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced its intention to intensify efforts to reach a peaceful resolution in the ongoing conflict.

Insecurity in Farah Leads United Nations to Dispatch 100+ Families

MAIMANA - Constant insecurity in the northern Balkh province has left about 150 families displaced in recent months. The United Nations has dispatched 100+ families to provide them with much-needed assistance.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Insecurity in Farah Leads United Nations to Dispatch 100+ Families

MAIMANA - Constant insecurity in the northern Balkh province has left about 150 families displaced in recent months. The United Nations has dispatched 100+ families to provide them with much-needed assistance.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Insecurity in Farah Leads United Nations to Dispatch 100+ Families

MAIMANA - Constant insecurity in the northern Balkh province has left about 150 families displaced in recent months. The United Nations has dispatched 100+ families to provide them with much-needed assistance.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Insecurity in Farah Leads United Nations to Dispatch 100+ Families

MAIMANA - Constant insecurity in the northern Balkh province has left about 150 families displaced in recent months. The United Nations has dispatched 100+ families to provide them with much-needed assistance.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Kabul - The Afghan government has announced that it will not leave its citizens to face the Taliban. The statement was made on the sidelines of a meeting with foreign dignitaries, and it was emphasized that the government would not allow any violation of the right to peaceful existence.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.

Ghani Tells Parliament: If Your Words Fail, Your Acts Must Fill

KABUL - Ashraf Ghani, the president of Afghanistan, has called for a new round of parliamentary elections to address the current political impasse in the country.