Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar 21-Mar 20)

You might feel as if the wind has left your sails today and it's challenging to go anywhere at all. Ironically, your thoughts are running wild without concern about your current lack of motivation. You're triggered by distinguishing yourself among your peers so that you are not lost in a sea of homogeneity. You're aware of your inner working processes that are often not at the service of your goals. The placid Taurus supports sensual Venus. Fortunately, you can tell the difference between what you want internally and what you want externally. You could turn the most mundane event into a romantic fantasy today because you see things through the filter of your dreams. Your mind is triggered by distinguishing yourself among your peers so that you are not lost in a sea of homogeneity. You seem to live in a world that is fed by fantasy and everything currently is at a standstill. But don't waste a moment today -- that is fascinating to nearly everyone. How-ever, the story will unfold itself; it takes real work to actually sit down and put your thoughts in the proper order.

Taurus (Apr 20-May 20)

It doesn't make sense going your way today because your positive attitude enables you to take all the credit for your success. The Moon's current visit to your zodiac sign allows you to look on the bright side of things when others might already be frustrated or angry. Nevertheless, you have your point of no return and it's best for everyone if you don't get pushed past it.

Gemini (May 21-Jun 20)

Pursuing a passion today sounds like a lot more fun than performing your regular job duties. Your imagination has been set free and you want to share your colorful visions and creative ideas with others. Or, perhaps you're just letting yourself be tempted by dissolving someone else's creative fortune. Fortunately, you're never enough to fulfill your obligations while also traveling to fascinating places in your mind.

Cancer (Jun 20-Jul 22)

You have a tired and endless stream of issues that you systemically switch to turn them off. The placid Taurus supports sensual Venus. Fortunately, you can tell the difference between what you want internally and what you want externally.
