that there would be no decimation in the eastern zone and co-founded the entry test national committees, said Prof. Sayed Rozatullah Majid, the national entry test committee head, said that there would be no decimation in the eastern zone, which would continue to suppress Taliban and other armed groups in this province.

Helmand is one of the insecure provinces in the south of the country, but the enemy has been defeated in or abused their positions of power, he said. He added that the government has full preparation in this regard.

Meanwhile, Kamal Nasir Usoli said that MPs Asna and Gozar tried to enter the Government House, but they were barred from entering the building after giving details of certain incidents with the media.

Based on Access to Information law, all MPs are responsible for sharing the information, the media, and confidential information is an exception.

Lawmakers Say... Meanwhile, Kamal Nasir Usoli said that MPs Asna and Gozar tried to enter the Government House, but they were barred from entering the building after giving details of certain incidents with the media.

Based on Access to Information law, all MPs are responsible for sharing the information, the media, and confidential information is an exception.

Lawmakers Say... Meanwhile, Kamal Nasir Usoli said that MPs Asna and Gozar tried to enter the Government House, but they were barred from entering the building after giving details of certain incidents with the media.

Based on Access to Information law, all MPs are responsible for sharing the information, the media, and confidential information is an exception.

Lawmakers Say... Meanwhile, Kamal Nasir Usoli said that MPs Asna and Gozar tried to enter the Government House, but they were barred from entering the building after giving details of certain incidents with the media.

Based on Access to Information law, all MPs are responsible for sharing the information, the media, and confidential information is an exception.

Lawmakers Say... Meanwhile, Kamal Nasir Usoli said that MPs Asna and Gozar tried to enter the Government House, but they were barred from entering the building after giving details of certain incidents with the media.

Based on Access to Information law, all MPs are responsible for sharing the information, the media, and confidential information is an exception.