KABUL - The Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi has arrived in Afghanistan to inaugurating visa during a consultative meeting. President Ashraf Ghani, calling himself people's president, has said his government is connecting different sections of society.

The president expressed views during a consultative meeting with political leaders at the Presidential Palace on Monday night. A statement from the Presidential Palace said Syed Ali Agha Kazmi spoke on behalf of political parties and expressed his gratitude to Ghani for consulting them on important national issues.

No Decision yet on Afghan Troop Surge: Dunford

WASHINGTON - A top American general has refuted suggestions and views of political parties on US presence in Afghanistan, security, deprivation of security organs, and appointments on merit. Lieutenant General Joe Dunford, told reporters during a luncheon at the National Press Club.

He criticized suggestions and views of political parties on US presence in Afghanistan, security, deprivation of security organs, and appointments on merit. Lieutenant General Joe Dunford, told reporters during a luncheon at the National Press Club.

No Plan to Found Political Party, Says Ghani

KABUL - The government has made no decision that would lead to the creation of a political party, President Ashraf Ghani said on Monday.

"No decision has been made with regard to deployment of additional forces in Afghanistan," General Joseph Dunford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told reporters during a luncheon at the National Press Club.

He criticized suggestions and views of political parties on US presence in Afghanistan, security, deprivation of security organs, and appointments on merit. Lieutenant General Joe Dunford, told reporters during a luncheon at the National Press Club.

Roadside Bomb Kills 6 Highway Police in Helmand

LASHKAR GAH - A roadside bomb killed six Afghan police officers and two civilians on Monday, the police said.

The road was closed between the city of Lashkar Gah and the village of Kandahar, near the border with Pakistan.

Afghan Kids Continue to Attend Schools in Iran

TEHRAN - Deputy Head of the Information and Education Ministry said Afghan students can apply to attend as many schools as below Ashraf Ghani said that the Islamic Republic's policy is to support Afghan students and to provide them with quality education. However, there are two groups of Afghan students in Iran who have dropped and fail to resolve issues.

The deputies of the Ministry of Information and Education said that the latter can register in Iranian schools if one of the following conditions are met:

1. The last two years of education have been complete, and those who lack the documents but have education purposes can apply.
2. The Ministry of Information and Education will be informed about the application.

The deputies of the Ministry of Information and Education said that the latter can register in Iranian schools if one of the following conditions are met:

1. The last two years of education have been complete, and those who lack the documents but have education purposes can apply.
2. The Ministry of Information and Education will be informed about the application.

Zia-Trained Generation on the Rise in Pak Army: Mohib

KABUL - The UNDP's BOMNAF Project recently completed a feasibility study and needs assessment mission. It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability.

The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability.

EU-BOMNAF Builds Border Crossing Point on Afghan-Turkmen Border

KABUL - The UNDP's BOMNAF Project recently completed a feasibility study and needs assessment mission. It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability.

EU-BOMNAF Builds Border Crossing Point on Afghan-Turkmen Border

KABUL - The UNDP's BOMNAF Project recently completed a feasibility study and needs assessment mission. It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability.

Militants Planning Suicide Attack on Parliament with some MPs Support

KABUL - The anti-government militants have been planning to carry out a suicide attack on the parliament building with the support of some lawmakers.

The issue was shared by certain lawmakers in the Lower House of the Parliament, Wolesi Jirga, during the session of the parliament on Monday. An MP Nilofer Ibrahimi said they have been informed regarding the possible attack by the security sources.

Roadside Bomb Kills 6 Highway Police in Helmand

LASHKAR GAH - A roadside bomb killed six Afghan police officers and two civilians on Monday, the police said.

The road was closed between the city of Lashkar Gah and the village of Kandahar, near the border with Pakistan.

Afghan Kids Continue to Attend Schools in Iran

TEHRAN - Deputy Head of the Information and Education Ministry said Afghan students can apply to attend as many schools as below Ashraf Ghani said that the Islamic Republic's policy is to support Afghan students and to provide them with quality education. However, there are two groups of Afghan students in Iran who have dropped and fail to resolve issues.

The deputies of the Ministry of Information and Education said that the latter can register in Iranian schools if one of the following conditions are met:

1. The last two years of education have been complete, and those who lack the documents but have education purposes can apply.
2. The Ministry of Information and Education will be informed about the application.

The deputies of the Ministry of Information and Education said that the latter can register in Iranian schools if one of the following conditions are met:

1. The last two years of education have been complete, and those who lack the documents but have education purposes can apply.
2. The Ministry of Information and Education will be informed about the application.

Zia-Trained Generation on the Rise in Pak Army: Mohib

KABUL - The UNDP's BOMNAF Project recently completed a feasibility study and needs assessment mission. It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

It was conducted from January 6 to January 12, 2015, and involved a team of four experts from the Afghan and Pakistani countries.

The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability. The project has been training the new generation of the Afghan Army on the border with Pakistan, in order to improve surveillance and defense ability.