S
even members of Tehreek-i-Labbaik Pakistan (TLP) have been arrested in connection to Pakistani authorities.

Among them are Hakimullah Mehsud’s brother Ejaz Mehsud and his brother-in-law, who was in his thirties, had been killed in a US drone strike in North Waziristan on April 26, 2009. It was not clear when the attack took place at an unknown location a day later. He had succeeded his message to Pashtuns. The attack resulted in the death of 141 people including 132 schoolchildren – was carried out by the TTP.

By Dilawar Sherzai

June 21, 2016

The Plight of Afghan Journalists

T

e situation for Afghan journalists does not seem to be getting any better. The rising insecurity and the lack of attention to the plight of the journalists has led to some very difficult circumstances that the journalists have to go through so as to perform their duties. Even the foreign journalists are facing serious difficulties in fulfilling their responsibilities. Kabul police recently warned the foreign nationals and the journalists in Kabul to remain very careful due to the insecurity and the risk of safety and the risks of kidnapping that seems to be on the rise.

Afghan media organizations report that the current war by the police, in fact, demoralizes the spirits of the journalists in the country and would bar them from fulfilling their duties. Security au-

The Plight of Afghan Journalists

T

e situation for Afghan journalists does not seem to be getting any better. The rising insecurity and the lack of attention to the plight of the journalists has led to some very difficult circumstances that the journalists have to go through so as to perform their duties. Even the foreign journalists are facing serious difficulties in fulfilling their responsibilities. Kabul police recently warned the foreign nationals and the journalists in Kabul to remain very careful due to the insecurity and the risk of safety and the risks of kidnapping that seems to be on the rise.

Afghan media organizations report that the current war by the po-

Article 9, which is an organization supporting open media in Afghanistan would bar them from collecting information. Instead, the security au-

Senior US officials followed Mullah Akhtar Mansour’s death in the文化艺术区 (QGF). Afghanistan’s armed forces said about 100 Afghan and foreign soldiers were killed or wounded. The Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack.

Provided that the rights of the journalists are protected, it is important to obtain news, photographs or documents.

Afghanistan. He can be reached at zia_hujjat@yahoo.com

Visiting senior US officials following Mullah Akhtar Mansour’s death in the文化艺术区 (QGF). Afghanistan’s armed forces said about 100 Afghan and foreign soldiers were killed or wounded. The Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack.

Death of 141 people including 132 schoolchildren – was carried out by the TTP.

By Dilawar Sherzai

June 21, 2016

The Plight of Afghan Journalists

T

e situation for Afghan journalists does not seem to be getting any better. The rising insecurity and the lack of attention to the plight of the journalists has led to some very difficult circumstances that the journalists have to go through so as to perform their duties. Even the foreign journalists are facing serious difficulties in fulfilling their responsibilities. Kabul police recently warned the foreign nationals and the journalists in Kabul to remain very careful due to the insecurity and the risk of safety and the risks of kidnapping that seems to be on the rise.

Afghan media organizations report that the current war by the po-

TTP is an alliance of militant networks formed in 2007 to unify

to the Declaration of Rights and Duties of the Journalists, must have

An individual needs to make sure that he has a role, in some way

TTP is an alliance of militant networks formed in 2007 to unify

to the Declaration of Rights and Duties of the Journalists, must have

An individual needs to make sure that he has a role, in some way

for the society wherein he lives. He needs to have such consciousness that the societies committed against Pakistan.

Fazlullah, together with other TTP militants, be targeted by

August 2009. However, leading members in the TTP had conor organization leading the conflict and do not serve anyone’s purpose.

Moreover, the journalist have the right to refuse subordination to any-clearly expressed motives.

Provided that the rights of the journalists are protected, it is important to obtain news, photographs or documents.

Afghanistan. He can be reached at zia_hujjat@yahoo.com

Visiting senior US officials following Mullah Akhtar Mansour’s death in the文化艺术区 (QGF). Afghanistan’s armed forces said about 100 Afghan and foreign soldiers were killed or wounded. The Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack.

Death of 141 people including 132 schoolchildren – was carried out by the TTP.

By Dilawar Sherzai

June 21, 2016

The Plight of Afghan Journalists

T

e situation for Afghan journalists does not seem to be getting any better. The rising insecurity and the lack of attention to the plight of the journalists has led to some very difficult circumstances that the journalists have to go through so as to perform their duties. Even the foreign journalists are facing serious difficulties in fulfilling their responsibilities. Kabul police recently warned the foreign nationals and the journalists in Kabul to remain very careful due to the insecurity and the risk of safety and the risks of kidnapping that seems to be on the rise.

Afghan media organizations report that the current war by the po-

TTP is an alliance of militant networks formed in 2007 to unify

to the Declaration of Rights and Duties of the Journalists, must have

An individual needs to make sure that he has a role, in some way

for the society wherein he lives. He needs to have such consciousness

that the societies committed against Pakistan.

Fazlullah, together with other TTP militants, be targeted by

August 2009. However, leading members in the TTP had con-

or organization leading the conflict and do not serve anyone’s purpose.

Moreover, the journalist have the right to refuse subordination to any-

clearly expressed motives.

Provided that the rights of the journalists are protected, it is important to obtain news, photographs or documents.

Afghanistan. He can be reached at zia_hujjat@yahoo.com

Visiting senior US officials following Mullah Akhtar Mansour’s death in the文化艺术区 (QGF). Afghanistan’s armed forces said about 100 Afghan and foreign soldiers were killed or wounded. The Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack.

Death of 141 people including 132 schoolchildren – was carried out by the TTP.

By Dilawar Sherzai

June 21, 2016

The Plight of Afghan Journalists

T

e situation for Afghan journalists does not seem to be getting any better. The rising insecurity and the lack of attention to the plight of the journalists has led to some very difficult circumstances that the journalists have to go through so as to perform their duties. Even the foreign journalists are facing serious difficulties in fulfilling their responsibilities. Kabul police recently warned the foreign nationals and the journalists in Kabul to remain very careful due to the insecurity and the risk of safety and the risks of kidnapping that seems to be on the rise.

Afghan media organizations report that the current war by the po-

TTP is an alliance of militant networks formed in 2007 to unify

to the Declaration of Rights and Duties of the Journalists, must have

An individual needs to make sure that he has a role, in some way

for the society wherein he lives. He needs to have such consciousness

that the societies committed against Pakistan.

Fazlullah, together with other TTP militants, be targeted by

August 2009. However, leading members in the TTP had con-

or organization leading the conflict and do not serve anyone’s purpose.

Moreover, the journalist have the right to refuse subordination to any-

clearly expressed motives.

Provided that the rights of the journalists are protected, it is important to obtain news, photographs or documents.

Afghanistan. He can be reached at zia_hujjat@yahoo.com

Visiting senior US officials following Mullah Akhtar Mansour’s death in the文化艺术区 (QGF). Afghanistan’s armed forces said about 100 Afghan and foreign soldiers were killed or wounded. The Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack.

Death of 141 people including 132 schoolchildren – was carried out by the TTP.