Afghan Security Forces Killed 20, Injured 12 Daesh Militants in Past two Days

KABUL - Afghan security forces killed at least 20 Daesh militants, after the Daesh terrorists attempted to attack security check points in the Darzab district of Afghanistan's northern Jowzjan province, according to local media.

At least 20 militants of the Islamic State (ISIL or Daesh, terrorist group, outlawed in Russia) were killed, and 12 more were injured by security forces in Afghanistan's northern Jowzjan province over the past 48 hours, local media reported Wednesday, citing police chief of the province Rahmatullah Turkmestani.

According to the TOLONews broadcaster, the Daesh terrorists attempted to attack security check points in the Darzab district of the province on Monday night and the clash continued until midnight on Tuesday.

Six security force members were also killed and three others were wounded, the provincial police chief specified.

Afghanistan has long been suffering from unstable political, social and security situation due to the simmering militant insurgency. On May 31, a powerful blast occurred in the city of Kabul, leaving up to 150 people dead and over 300 injured. The Daesh claimed responsibility for the attack. (Sputnik)

Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

You're making plans to do a million things today, but chances are that none of them will come to fruition. It's like you're starring in an episode of "The Twilight Zone" now, where your thoughts can't break through an invisible wall that separates your inner world from your outer. Nevertheless, your imagination is real and things that take place in dreams and fantasies eventually influence your life.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

People close to you aren't telling you everything today. You're not sure what's being kept secret, but you can feel it in your bones. Unfortunately, there's nothing to do about this predicament, and asking questions just makes others retreat even further. However, don't doubt the validity of your intuition now. Just accept your assumptions to be true and give your friends enough room to be comfortable.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You might feel as if your mental wiring is carrying too much data over the same old circuits. You may even worry that your nerves will fray today, leaving messages undelivered. Fortunately, you can strengthen your internal communication system with the simple act of daily meditation. Just sitting in contemplation for fifteen minutes a day changes the chemistry of your body.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

You don't want anyone to know how buzzed you are today, but the coffee has kicked in and you're flying through the intellectual stratosphere. Nevertheless, you wish you could concentrate on your work, but your thoughts are bouncing around from one end to another. Instead of trying to fit your whole being into a confined space, break out of the cage. Connect with your inner eagle.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

Talking with your friends fills your head with all kinds of exciting ideas, but it's tough to integrate these conversations into your life. You might be left with two divergent worlds - your everyday work-related responsibilities and your creative space with its interesting books, clever people and unexplored territories. Embracing this duality doesn't mean that you must choose one over the other.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

People turn to you for your strong analytical skills and common sense. You are bumping up against a looming moment that represents a deadline, a time when you must make a decision about continuing a project or bringing it to an end. But you are far from knowing how to handle a significant transition yet. Thankfully, you can ponder philosophical issues with others while still refraining from taking a side in the ongoing argument.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

Everyone seems to be looking for something you already possess. Your confidence is refreshing, but it's not about simply declaring everything is possible. Your words must be directly connected with your heart if they are to produce a powerful impact. Don't try to agree with people without bringing your own feelings into the mix.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

You're driven to wrap words around things you already know. The talkative Gemini Moon is hanging out in your 8th House of Deep Sharing, motivating you to use language now instead of actions. However, people might not understand your message even if you carefully choose your words today. Remember, saying the same thing over and over he sweetness of relationships helps to reduce the pressure in your life now, especially if you feel like you're floating directionless out in the ether. But everyone seems overly chatty and you might prefer a bit of silence today, rather than a discussion that doesn't lead anywhere useful. Nevertheless, you can skillfully redirect a conversation to move it into more relevant areas of inquiry.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

Your attention to details can make or break your day. However, every time you narrow your focus to tie up another tiny loose end, you lose your concentration and must start all over again. Nevertheless, don't give up. Repeating this process a few times alters your perspective; what you see now is quite different from where you began.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You have a magical way with words today and can use them to paint a picture, tell a story or persuade someone to support your position. Sharing your thoughts in a presentation creates an intense immediacy, but putting your ideas in writing gives them more weight. Avoid being so philosophical that your message loses its connection with the real world.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You have a very personal tale to tell today and it's not for just anyone's ears. Sharing your feelings can deepen a relationship now, so be sure you want to go in that direction before you begin the conversation. Luckily, your admiration will shine through your words, even if that's not your intention. You may be seeking advice on how best to handle a family matter or a romantic problem.
