Violence Against Journalists

Kabul-Shajaran Air Corridor Inaugurated

KABUL - The Afghan government inaugurated Kabul-Shajaran air corridor on Monday.

According to the Afghan Ministry and Industry, the first flight carried two tons of fresh apples to the Shajaran City of the United Arab Emirates.

The announcement was made today by Ajmal Rehman, the Afghan minister of industry and commerce and economic advisor to President Ashraf Ghani.

Afghanistan joined the international Air Corridor Program to trade with foreign countries.

In 2017, the Afghan government expanded it to several other countries including Turkey, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Kuwait, China and UAE (ATN).

Policeman Killed in Attack on Baghlan Ancient Site

AFGHANISTAN - A policeman was killed and two others wounded in the nighttime attack, Police spokesman Ahmad Javed Basharat confirmed.

The attack was carried out at around 1:30 a.m. in the post of Baghlan ancient site near Khogyani district of Baghlan province.

He said they did not know why gunmen attacked the police officers.

Seven journalists were wounded, 17 media workers, including five murdred.

The report said that there had been at least 35 cases of violence against journalists during the first six months of 2019 in Kabul.

The Afghanistan Journalists Organization in Afghanistan, Nai, presented a report about violence against journalists.

He said violence against journalists declined by 50 percent in the first six months of this year, mainly because of lack of access to information and press freedom.

The government also inaugurated 280 small and big projects worth 353 million afghani in Khogyani district. However, local residents said the construction projects had so far been carried out in the Khogyani district.

President Ashraf Ghani, who visited the area, said Afghanis projects include construction of 43 school buildings, 217 schools, 1500 houses, 51.8pc Down in 6 Months: Nai

Violence Against Journalists

Kabul-Shajaran Air Corridor Inaugurated

KABUL - The Afghan government inaugurated Kabul-Shajaran air corridor on Monday.

According to the Afghan Ministry and Industry, the first flight carried two tons of fresh apples to the Shajaran City of the United Arab Emirates.

The announcement was made today by Ajmal Rehman, the Afghan minister of industry and commerce and economic advisor to President Ashraf Ghani.

Afghanistan joined the international Air Corridor Program to trade with foreign countries.

In 2017, the Afghan government expanded it to several other countries including Turkey, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Kuwait, China and UAE (ATN).

Policeman Killed in Attack on Baghlan Ancient Site

AFGHANISTAN - A policeman was killed and two others wounded in the nighttime attack, Police spokesman Ahmad Javed Basharat confirmed.

The attack was carried out at around 1:30 a.m. in the post of Baghlan ancient site near Khogyani district of Baghlan province.

He said they did not know why gunmen attacked the police officers.

Seven journalists were wounded, 17 media workers, including five murdred.

The report said that there had been at least 35 cases of violence against journalists during the first six months of 2019 in Kabul.

The Afghanistan Journalists Organization in Afghanistan, Nai, presented a report about violence against journalists.

He said violence against journalists declined by 50 percent in the first six months of this year, mainly because of lack of access to information and press freedom.

The government also inaugurated 280 small and big projects worth 353 million afghani in Khogyani district. However, local residents said the construction projects had so far been carried out in the Khogyani district.

President Ashraf Ghani, who visited the area, said Afghanis projects include construction of 43 school buildings, 217 schools, 1500 houses, 51.8pc Down in 6 Months: Nai

Violence Against Journalists

Kabul-Shajaran Air Corridor Inaugurated

KABUL - The Afghan government inaugurated Kabul-Shajaran air corridor on Monday.

According to the Afghan Ministry and Industry, the first flight carried two tons of fresh apples to the Shajaran City of the United Arab Emirates.

The announcement was made today by Ajmal Rehman, the Afghan minister of industry and commerce and economic advisor to President Ashraf Ghani.

Afghanistan joined the international Air Corridor Program to trade with foreign countries.

In 2017, the Afghan government expanded it to several other countries including Turkey, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Kuwait, China and UAE (ATN).

Policeman Killed in Attack on Baghlan Ancient Site

AFGHANISTAN - A policeman was killed and two others wounded in the nighttime attack, Police spokesman Ahmad Javed Basharat confirmed.

The attack was carried out at around 1:30 a.m. in the post of Baghlan ancient site near Khogyani district of Baghlan province.

He said they did not know why gunmen attacked the police officers.

Seven journalists were wounded, 17 media workers, including five murdred.

The report said that there had been at least 35 cases of violence against journalists during the first six months of 2019 in Kabul.

The Afghanistan Journalists Organization in Afghanistan, Nai, presented a report about violence against journalists.

He said violence against journalists declined by 50 percent in the first six months of this year, mainly because of lack of access to information and press freedom.

The government also inaugurated 280 small and big projects worth 353 million afghani in Khogyani district. However, local residents said the construction projects had so far been carried out in the Khogyani district.

President Ashraf Ghani, who visited the area, said Afghanis projects include construction of 43 school buildings, 217 schools, 1500 houses, 51.8pc Down in 6 Months: Nai

Violence Against Journalists

Kabul-Shajaran Air Corridor Inaugurated

KABUL - The Afghan government inaugurated Kabul-Shajaran air corridor on Monday.

According to the Afghan Ministry and Industry, the first flight carried two tons of fresh apples to the Shajaran City of the United Arab Emirates.

The announcement was made today by Ajmal Rehman, the Afghan minister of industry and commerce and economic advisor to President Ashraf Ghani.

Afghanistan joined the international Air Corridor Program to trade with foreign countries.

In 2017, the Afghan government expanded it to several other countries including Turkey, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Kuwait, China and UAE (ATN).

Policeman Killed in Attack on Baghlan Ancient Site

AFGHANISTAN - A policeman was killed and two others wounded in the nighttime attack, Police spokesman Ahmad Javed Basharat confirmed.

The attack was carried out at around 1:30 a.m. in the post of Baghlan ancient site near Khogyani district of Baghlan province.

He said they did not know why gunmen attacked the police officers.

Seven journalists were wounded, 17 media workers, including five murdred.

The report said that there had been at least 35 cases of violence against journalists during the first six months of 2019 in Kabul.

The Afghanistan Journalists Organization in Afghanistan, Nai, presented a report about violence against journalists.

He said violence against journalists declined by 50 percent in the first six months of this year, mainly because of lack of access to information and press freedom.

The government also inaugura...