Despite Challenges, 24,000km of Roads Rebuilt in 14 Years

KARUL - The Ministry of Public Works (MoPW) on Friday said it had reconstructed roads measuring a man as many as 24,000 kilometres during the past 14 years despite challenges to implementing development projects.

MoPW spokesman Mohammad Mahdi Rohani told Pajhwok Afghan News insecurity and people's desire to providing their land for development projects were some of the challenges the ministry faced in executing could-us-rebuild other projects.

Due to growing insecurity, he said, development projects could not be... (More on P4)...(5)
