March 06, 2016

In Pakistan:

1) outskirts

changes in the election system. "Electoral reforms must take place on an urgent basis, and take part in any future election of the kind," a British official named Nawaz told FOCO.[1] The UN Secretary-General’s Deputy Representative, Andrew G. Gilmour, was in Afghanistan to discuss with senior officials in Kabul and other regional capitals the situation in the country.

2) Jalalabad

Bin Laden’s successor, Mullah Akhtar Mansour, is believed to have shifted his camp from east of the city to the west. Sources close to the Afghan intelligence agency said that a large gathering of Taliban militants had been held within weeks in Pakistan. The official also noted that units of the Afghan Special Forces had also been deployed in the region.

3) Zabul

Militants killed an Indian priest who was on his way to travel to a place in Kandahar. He had no information if his son at- tended a special commission on immi-

4) Lashkargah

On the night killing over two dozen sol-

5) Deh Sabz

One of the Taliban’s most senior jews, Mr. M. Akbar Qazi, was killed by Afghan security forces. He had been escaped from a jail on Saturday. Mr. Qazi was serving a 10-year sentence, was killed on the Shi- a highway in the capital Laskhkar Gah late Friday night.

6) Mazar

The chapter said that the mother superior man-

7) Afghan Peace Talks

An Afghan official was killed in an IED attack in the war-torn country, according to officials. The Taliban have claimed responsibility for the attack.

8) Kabul

The UN envoy is due to return to

9) Peshawar

A number of inmates from central Pris-

10) Peshawar

The 6th US-Pakistan Strategic Dialogue, said this while giving the 6th US-Pakistan Strategic Dialogue, said this while giving...