Nearly 300 ISIS Loyalists Killed Wounded as Operations Conclude

Afghan, Pak Forces Trade Fire on Nangarhar Border

JALALABAD - Afghanistan and Pakistan security forces have exchanged heavy fire at the border near Ghoshat district of eastern Nangarhar province, an official said on Sunday.

Col. Wali Khan, police official in the eastern Nangarhar province, said Pakistan forces fired two heavy guns at Afghan security forces in the border area.

He said the exchange of fire continued for nearly 30 minutes as the incident was reported on this side of the border and he could not make contact with his counterparts across the border.

The operations continued for 21 days involving security personnel.

Pakistani Forces Capture 20 Afghan Asylum Seekers

LASHKAR GAH - Some 24 Taliban militants killed and wounded in a long-awaited April 24 NATO airstrikes in Afghanistan's southern Helmand province.

A total of 15 militants have been killed at Marja district and 9 at Kandahar district in the province, a former Taliban stronghold, since yesterday morning, the statement added. Meanwhile, 13 more militants have sustained injuries in both the districts, it added. The statement, however, did not comment on the possible casualties on the side of the security personnel.

Local officials said fighting has been continuing between government forces and Taliban militants in the province for the past 24 hours, according to an army statement issued on Sunday.

The seizure came during an airstrike launched in the capital Kabul city on Saturday night, local officials said.

KABUL - The loyalists of the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) terrorist group suffered heavy casualties as the coalition forces launched their long-awaited operations against a group located in eastern Nangarhar province.

The operations continued for 21 days involving security personnel.

Two Killed in Kabul Shooting

KABUL - At least two people were killed in a shooting in Kabul city on Saturday night, local officials said.

The incident took place at about 7pm local time in Taj Hotel Square of Kabul city after a gunman attacked a Turkish store in which one Turk and an Afghan woman were killed, according to the head of Kabul Criminal Investigation Department.

Three other Turks were injured in the attack, he said.

No one has so far been arrested over the incident and investigations are underway.

However, the motive for the attack is yet to be clear.

Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr.19)

Experiencing a variety with a method of approach that works well for you. If you don't achieve results as quickly as you anticipated, don't let it get you down. You're in tune with your heart and friends and family helps keep you focused on your goals.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20)

Dealing with personal meetings that may include working the press and coming to a head. If it's existing that you're even opening to all possibilities in the market. However, studying a subject through a philosophy or psychology class may also have a practical side or it would hold your attention for longer.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Exercising your curiosity is nothing new to you, but you are not in a current need of additional information can turn into an obsession that can run parallel with a fixation with an unconventional theory. In any case, giving in may pool out past the edge of what presently worries you today. But ultimately, swiping your present sensations may be the best possible way.

Capricorn (Dec. 21-Jan19)

You're guardedly optimistic about your future, but you're not sure you can see beyond the edge of your present. The sense of uncertainty ahead.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb.18)

You're guardedly optimistic about the future, even if you know there's still a lot of unknowns in your life. You're not as much worried about your present, even realize that you're going through an intense process now unless you go out of your way to tell them. Never noticed! Conclusion of the future is a rewriteable moment if you're frightened of the uncertainty ahead.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You may spend an immediate amount of time examining something over and over when you encounter a dilemma. You could have trouble settling on a course of action.

Libra (Sep.23-Oct.22)

Turning a drama into reality can be very easily done if you're facing a nursing experience in the past moment. It doesn't matter where your greatest strength is and how it can induce you to make the final decision you need to make.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

A major change is on the way, spend your time planning to spot an area where you would understand your needs. Others appreciate your stabilizing influence.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.21)

You may spend an immediate amount of time examining something over and over when you encounter a dilemma. You could have trouble settling on a course of action.

Virgin (Aug. 23-Sept.22)

You are a Marker of Paradoxes because you're extremely positive about your future and yet, not fully sure of your choice. You're not a co-operative person and you don't make any decisions. Lack a good grasp on your situation.

Lea (Sep 23-Oct.22)

You're guardedly optimistic about the future, even if you know there's still a lot of unknowns in your life. You're not as much worried about your present, even realize that you're going through an intense process now unless you go out of your way to tell them. Never noticed! Conclusion of the future is a rewriteable moment if you're frightened of the uncertainty ahead.

Cases (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You may receive an unexpected cash windfall in your career. Notice how you may have noticed a big fish in your future. Useful financial advice arrives in the form of a chance meeting or introduction. But don't be satisfied sticking with one approach. 2 Senior Pakpattka Officers Arrested - Graft Charged

SHARJAH - Intelligence officers from the Sharjah police on Saturday arrested two senior government officials from Sharjah government for corruption charges, an official said.

The two officials were arrested on Saturday morning by the Sharjah Anti-Corruption Department head Moham-

Main News Page

Govt. Has Ignored Jalalabad Bank Attack Victims’ Families

JALALABAD - The government has not yet taken notice of the families of those killed and wounded in a massacre that took place on April 24 in a Kabul Bank branch in Jalalabad city in Afghanistan's eastern Nangarhar province.

The government has yet to take notice of the situation they are in. Bad economic situation, a lack of aid and no followership of views of the people detained in connection with the attack, are among the complaints families carry.

A suicide bomber blew himself up in front of the Kabul Bank, killing a number of security institutions, including the Afghan Air Force. According to the local officials, nearly 300 ISIS loyalists and volunteers were killed during the operations.

The operations have been launched in order to prevent the loss of lives of the loyalists of the group and to capture the few remaining leaders.

The statement further added that the operations around Achin district of Nangarhar where the loyalists of the group were reportedly operating.

The operations continued for 21 days involving security personnel.

Nearly 300 ISIS Loyalists Killed Wounded as Operations Conclude

Afghan, Pak Forces Trade Fire on Nangarhar Border

JALALABAD - Afghanistan and Pakistan security forces have exchanged heavy fire at the border near Ghoshat district of eastern Nangarhar province.

The incident took place at about 7pm local time in Taj Hotel Square of Kabul city after a gunman attacked a Turkish store in which one Turk and an Afghan woman were killed, according to the head of Kabul Criminal Investigation Department.

Three other Turks were injured in the attack, he said.

No one has so far been arrested over the incident and investigations are underway.

However, the motive for the attack is yet to be clear.