Without Turkey, Europe's Migration Crisis: French Official

Paris - Friday’s plan to stem the flow of migrants from Turkey to Europe is “doomed to failure,” the President of the French National Assembly said on Tuesday. The plan includes a “toxic mixture” of money and aid, which is unlikely to stop migrants from crossing into Europe, according to Pierre Poisson, who represents the conservative Union for French Democracy. Poisson, who also chairs the European Parliament’s migration committee, said the plan was a “complete failure” and that the European Union needed to take urgent action to stop the migrant influx into Europe.

Migrant Sea Arrivals in EU Rise Despite New Deployed Nato Vessels

Geneva - The International Organization for Migration (IOM) reported on Tuesday that the influx of migrants and refugees in Europe is still growing, with 141,144 arrivals recorded in the first week of October. According to the figures, 146,000 migrants, including 31,000 asylum seekers, entered the EU in September. A total of 9,200 migrants died or went missing in the Mediterranean Sea.

EU Stills Mired in Migration Crisis

Brussels - The European Commission on Tuesday called for a “dramatic increase” in the number of people being helped to safely leave their homes and reach Europe. The Commission said that although the number of arrivals in Italy and Greece has fallen, the overall number of migrants trying to reach Europe remains high. The Commission called for a “concerted effort” to improve the situation on the ground.

EU Faces ‘Moment of Truth’ on Migrants: UN High Commissioner

BRUSSELS - The European Commission on Tuesday said it would need more than €2 billion to meet its obligations under the EU’s new migrant policy. The Commission said it was working on a plan to raise the necessary funds, including through public donations and international aid.

EU Launches Plan to Enhance Disaster Response in E Africa

NAIROBI - The UN launched a new plan on Tuesday to enhance disaster response in eastern Africa. The plan, which is supported by the African Union and the UN, aims to improve coordination and response to disasters in the region, including floods, droughts, and volcanic eruptions.

Without Turkey, Europe’s Migration Crisis: French Official

Paris - Friday’s plan to stem the flow of migrants from Turkey to Europe is “doomed to failure,” the President of the French National Assembly said on Tuesday. The plan includes a “toxic mixture” of money and aid, which is unlikely to stop migrants from crossing into Europe, according to Pierre Poisson, who represents the conservative Union for French Democracy. Poisson, who also chairs the European Parliament’s migration committee, said the plan was a “complete failure” and that the European Union needed to take urgent action to stop the migrant influx into Europe.

Migrant Sea Arrivals in EU Rise Despite New Deployed Nato Vessels

Geneva - The International Organization for Migration (IOM) reported on Tuesday that the influx of migrants and refugees in Europe is still growing, with 141,144 arrivals recorded in the first week of October. According to the figures, 146,000 migrants, including 31,000 asylum seekers, entered the EU in September. A total of 9,200 migrants died or went missing in the Mediterranean Sea.

EU Stills Mired in Migration Crisis

Brussels - The European Commission on Tuesday called for a “dramatic increase” in the number of people being helped to safely leave their homes and reach Europe. The Commission said that although the number of arrivals in Italy and Greece has fallen, the overall number of migrants trying to reach Europe remains high. The Commission called for a “concerted effort” to improve the situation on the ground.

EU Faces ‘Moment of Truth’ on Migrants: UN High Commissioner

BRUSSELS - The European Commission on Tuesday said it would need more than €2 billion to meet its obligations under the EU’s new migrant policy. The Commission said it was working on a plan to raise the necessary funds, including through public donations and international aid.

EU Launches Plan to Enhance Disaster Response in E Africa

NAIROBI - The UN launched a new plan on Tuesday to enhance disaster response in eastern Africa. The plan, which is supported by the African Union and the UN, aims to improve coordination and response to disasters in the region, including floods, droughts, and volcanic eruptions.

Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 20)

You might feel that you're floating in an instant world, and you're less and less able to fully control your situation. However, your inital balloon could pop today when the Pisces Solar Eclipse ruffles your 12th House of anatomy. You might actually be less able to comprehend what you're feeling, and you're less able to fully control your situation.

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 22)

You might feel that you're floating in an instant world, and you're less and less able to fully control your situation. However, your inital balloon could pop today when the Pisces Solar Eclipse ruffles your 12th House of anatomy. You might actually be less able to comprehend what you're feeling, and you're less able to fully control your situation.

Libra (Sep. 23-Oct. 22)

A healthier diet and a more disciplined exercise routine are key today if you want to improve your mood. Libra is not the place to be carefree, and you might lack the commitment necessary to make your work. Nevertheless, the imaginative Pisces Solar Eclipse gives you a kick in the pants today, and you might find that you're better able to focus on your work.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

The misalignment of the New Moon Eclipse in the 1st House today means that it is difficult to get help when you need it. You might feel that you're floating in an instant world, and you're less and less able to fully control your situation.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Everyone seems to have a low-key attitude today as the Pisces Solar Eclipse ruffles your 12th House of anatomy. Although you might disagree with some today, you don't like the idea of anyone thinking that you're desperate for help. It's too late now.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sep. 22)

You might feel that you're floating in an instant world, and you're less and less able to fully control your situation. However, your inital balloon could pop today when the Pisces Solar Eclipse ruffles your 12th House of anatomy. You might actually be less able to comprehend what you're feeling, and you're less able to fully control your situation.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20)

You might feel that you're floating in an instant world, and you're less and less able to fully control your situation. However, your inital balloon could pop today when the Pisces Solar Eclipse ruffles your 12th House of anatomy. You might actually be less able to comprehend what you're feeling, and you're less able to fully control your situation.

Gemini (May 21-Jun. 20)

Managing all the uncertainty at work might not be your smartest move if you want to improve your mood. Libra is not the place to be carefree, and you might lack the commitment necessary to make your work. Nevertheless, the imaginative Pisces Solar Eclipse gives you a kick in the pants today, and you might find that you're better able to focus on your work.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You might feel that you're floating in an instant world, and you're less and less able to fully control your situation. However, your inital balloon could pop today when the Pisces Solar Eclipse ruffles your 12th House of anatomy. You might actually be less able to comprehend what you're feeling, and you're less able to fully control your situation.