A Demining Worker Gunned Down in Samangan

The Taliban killed a demining worker in Samangan on Saturday, further underscoring the grim toll the war is exacting on the locals.

Quoting sources, the Taliban claimed responsibility for the attack.

The incident comes amid an ongoing offensive by the Afghan security forces to retake territory from the Taliban in the north.

One Demining Worker Gunned Down in Samangan

In a shocking turn of events, a demining worker was shot dead on Saturday near the village of Qargha in Samangan province.

According to local sources, the worker was killed by unidentified fighters while he was working at a site.

The killing is the latest in a series of attacks targeting deminers in Afghanistan, highlighting the dangers they face in their work.

Apple Farmers Call for Urgent Help from Govt

Farmers in Wardak province are calling for urgent government action to address the challenges they face.

The farmers, who produce apples, said they are facing severe financial losses due to the ongoing conflict and the need to pay off their debts.

They have written to the government seeking immediate relief and assistance.

KABUL - Farmers and traders warn they will close the Maidan Wardak highway if their demands are not met.

A heated argument broke out in parliament after government officials said they would not allow the closure of the highway.

The debate was triggered by an outbreak of violence in the area, with farmers demanding better access to markets and security for their goods.

Government Interfering in Parliamentary Affairs: MPs

A heated argument broke out in parliament after government officials said they would not allow the closure of the highway.

The debate was triggered by an outbreak of violence in the area, with farmers demanding better access to markets and security for their goods.

MMA Fighter Badakhshi Knocks out Rival in First Round

Badakhshi, an MMA fighter, knocked out his Indian-German rival in the first round of their fight.

The 25-year-old Afghan knocked out his 33-year-old rival with a powerful knee strike in the first round.

Roadside Bomb Hits NATO Convoy in Kundahar

A roadside bomb has targeted a NATO convoy in Kundahar, with no immediate details available on casualties or damage.

The attack comes amid an ongoing security operation in the area by Afghan and NATO forces.

Girls Graduate from Eighth Grade in Logar

Girls in Logar province have graduated from the eighth grade, with the education director highlighting the importance of girls' education.

The graduation ceremony was attended by local officials and parents, with girls expressing their joy at finally completing a significant milestone.