CEO Dubs Outgoing Year Successful Despite Hardships

Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Abdullah Abdullah has said the outgoing solar year saw “remarkable achievements” and pledged resolution to people’s problems as government’s top in the new year.

KABUL – Addressing the Cabinet’s last meeting for the solar year that ends on March 21, the CEO said the government was committed to resolving people’s problems and working with even further strong commitment to addressing their issues in the coming year.

Abdullah termed solar year 1395 as “most working period” in past 17 years and added despite security challenges major achievements were gained on political and economic fronts.

About peace making, the CEO said: “I hope the peace front would become more united and together so we are able to achieve durable peace over those who want war and instability.” “Fortunately, the confrontations with Balih (province) is being resolved,” he said.

Earlier President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani had removed Governor Alta Mohammad Noor as the governor of northern Balkh province, but Noor refused to step down. (Dawn a Phil.
