KABUL - The Afghan National Civil Order Police (NCP) on Wednesday said the war had been imposed on the government and an intra-Afghan dialogue was the only way to end the conflict.

Comprised of religious scholars and university teachers, the APCP said it was sitting to establish peace talks in a closed-door session on Wednesday, which was attended by a third party that was not involved in the peace talks step which had not been taken so far.

Kabul’s Acting Mayor Pledges War But City Challenges Remain

KABUL - The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Kabul Province (KABUL) has, in his address to the people, said the Kabul municipality, in the past 10 years, has been subject to the challenges of war... (More on P6)... (17)

Afghan National Army (ANA) is facing of challenges in its operations against the Taliban... (More on P6)... (11)

President, in his address to the people, said the Kabul municipality, in the past 10 years, has been subject to the challenges of war... (More on P6)... (17)

The Afghan Ministry of Interior (MoI) on Wednesday day denied it had hired new employees against high salaries, as reported by local media, because the back-to-school campaign at the National ID Card (NIC) department.

He said the five million afs had only been collected at the city gates. “The people are not aware of the money raised and it would further jeopardize the municipality’s budget,” he said.

The mayor urged the people to provide information about any activity that was violating the municipality’s budget.