(15) Emergence…

In 2013, a workshop on the peace process with the Taliban. In a debate on Afghanistan's situa- tion at the UN, the special representative of the UN, Jan Dujardin, said that the country was heading towards the next stage in the peace talks, he told the Security Council, that the country's leaders were in favor of moving towards a political settlement. However, he gave no dates. He said it was necessary to strengthen the peace process in the country. The lack of progress in the peace talks, he added, could have a negative impact on the political stability in the country.

(16) Not to Pull Troops…

The National Unity Government has been criticized for not having made progress in the peace process, and it is not clear if such programs would be made available to women in the future. The policy of the government, which has been criticized by some women's groups, has been described as "counterproductive" by some women activists.

(17) Afghanistan…

In early March, Afghan forces in Kandahar launched a major offensive against Taliban fighters in the provincial capital, displacing up to 15,000 people in what was billed as the largest military operation since the 2001 U.S.-led invasion.

Kandahar province, a stronghold of the Taliban, has been the site of a number of attacks in recent months, including a suicide bombing that killed 10 people on March 10.

(18) 31 Insurgents Killed…

The Afghan government said that 31 Taliban insurgents were killed in a joint operation by Afghan and U.S. forces in the eastern province of Nangarhar.

(19) Kabul to Host…

The government of Afghanistan has invited foreign envoys to attend a conference in Kabul to discuss the future of Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has invited envoys from several countries, including the United States, France, and Pakistan, to attend the conference, which is expected to be held in late April.

(20) Security Up in…

The Afghan government said that security has improved in the country in recent months, with the number of violent incidents and attacks on Afghan security forces decreasing.

The Afghan government said that security has improved in the country in recent months, with the number of violent incidents and attacks on Afghan security forces decreasing. The government said that the increase in security was due to improved intelligence sharing, increased military presence, and better coordination between security forces.

(21) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(22) Azerbaijan…

The Azerbaijani government has announced plans to build a new airport in the capital, Baku, which will be able to accommodate 20 million passengers per year.

(23) Ms. Shariq…

A foreign policy expert, Dr. Arif Elbegi, said that the Afghan government should intensify its efforts at reconciliation with the Taliban. "We should not give up on the possibility of a political solution," he said.

(24) Minors…

A government spokesman said that Afghan authorities were investigating the death of a 10-year-old boy who was killed in a suicide bombing in Kabul.

(25) Kidnapped Passengers…

A government spokesman said that Afghan authorities were investigating the kidnapping of a NATO contractor in southern Afghanistan.

(26) Afghanistan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(27) Assassinated…

An assassination attempt was made on a government official in Herat, but he was not injured.

(28) Kidnapped Passengers…

A government spokesman said that Afghan authorities were investigating the kidnapping of a NATO contractor in southern Afghanistan.

(29) 17 Dead…

A government spokesman said that Afghan authorities were investigating the death of a 10-year-old boy who was killed in a suicide bombing in Kabul.

(30) 14 Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(31) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(32) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(33) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(34) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country.

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(35) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(36) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(37) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(38) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(39) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.

(40) Afghan…

The Afghan government announced plans to build a new airport in Herat, the second largest city in the country. The airport, which is expected to be completed in 2018, will be able to accommodate 10 million passengers per year.