KABUL - Acting Kabul Mayor Abdul Hadi, sold one liter of diesel from 6,000 to 5,800afs. The prices of food items remained uncontrolled. Two children were killed and nine others wounded. The statement slammed the Habbatullah led Taliban for retrying the conference and regarded their decision inaccurate and illegal.

The statement confirmed. A battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians. According to an interior ministry decision, a battalion has been formed to protect civilians.