Afghanistan: New year starts with successive attacks

By Mohammad Zahir Akbari

A new year starts with unceasing gloom as the country mentoring another year of violence and bloodshed. As the country is witnessing signs of normalization of political conflicts resolution approaches and reducing the costs as much as possible, the only hope is to return to the status quo ante in Afghanistan and just it can be institutionalized if the Afghan government and Afghan employers a-join hands to develop a political horizon that is real and not act selectively in terms of political conflict resolution in Afghanistan.
