March 31, 2016

Unemployment is one of the biggest issues in Afghanistan and separation and one of the greatest causes of poverty, insecurity, and instability within the Afghan society. Unfortunately, the different elements who are living in the province, and especially the youngsters who get qualified from universities must be given the necessary opportunities to earn a living, which is threatened by unemployment; the population in return must, through thinking and action, strive to maintain peace, tranquility and order. The international community and the Afghan authorities must make sure that they create the financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

The financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

UNemployment is one of the biggest issues in Afghanistan and separation and one of the greatest causes of poverty, insecurity, and instability within the Afghan society. Unfortunately, the different elements who are living in the province, and especially the youngsters who get qualified from universities must be given the necessary opportunities to earn a living, which is threatened by unemployment; the population in return must, through thinking and action, strive to maintain peace, tranquility and order. The international community and the Afghan authorities must make sure that they create the financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

The financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

UNemployment is one of the biggest issues in Afghanistan and separation and one of the greatest causes of poverty, insecurity, and instability within the Afghan society. Unfortunately, the different elements who are living in the province, and especially the youngsters who get qualified from universities must be given the necessary opportunities to earn a living, which is threatened by unemployment; the population in return must, through thinking and action, strive to maintain peace, tranquility and order. The international community and the Afghan authorities must make sure that they create the financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

The financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

UNemployment is one of the biggest issues in Afghanistan and separation and one of the greatest causes of poverty, insecurity, and instability within the Afghan society. Unfortunately, the different elements who are living in the province, and especially the youngsters who get qualified from universities must be given the necessary opportunities to earn a living, which is threatened by unemployment; the population in return must, through thinking and action, strive to maintain peace, tranquility and order. The international community and the Afghan authorities must make sure that they create the financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.

The financial support has already been技术研发 in order to provide sufficient economic opportunities for the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country. More than any other thing, government must concentrate on providing job opportunities to the educated youngsters and thus pave the way for the development of the country.