April 14

(4) At the Afghan conference, the government announced that it will no longer allow the Taliban to use its territory to plan and launch attacks. The decision was made in response to the Taliban’s recent attacks on government forces and local residents. The government also stressed the need for a comprehensive strategy to address the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan.

(5) The Afghan government has announced that it is considering opening a new embassy in the Middle East. The move is seen as a sign of the government’s commitment to improving relations with regional countries. A final decision on the location and timing of the embassy will be made in the coming weeks.

(6) The United Nations has condemned the recent attacks on journalists in Afghanistan, calling for an end to impunity and increased protection for media workers. The UN has also urged the Afghan government to take urgent action to address the ongoing crisis.

(7) Following a series of attacks on journalists in Afghanistan, the International Press Institute (IPI) has expressed concern about the safety of media workers in the country. The IPI has called on the Afghan government to take immediate action to protect journalists.

(8) The Afghan government has announced that it will provide $20 million in funding to support the education of women and girls. The funds will be used to support a range of initiatives, including scholarships, vocational training, and support for girls’ education programs.

(9) The Afghan government has announced that it will establish a new committee to address the issue of corruption. The committee will be chaired by the president and will include representatives from various government departments.

(10) The Afghan government has announced that it will increase the number of border guards to 20,000. The increase is seen as a sign of the government’s commitment to improving border security.

(11) The Afghan government has announced that it will provide $10 million in funding to support the construction of new hospitals. The funds will be used to support the construction of 10 new hospitals in various parts of the country.

(12) The Afghan government has announced that it will provide $5 million in funding to support the development of new industries. The funds will be used to support the development of new industries in various parts of the country.

(13) The Afghan government has announced that it will provide $3 million in funding to support the development of new agricultural projects. The funds will be used to support the development of new agricultural projects in various parts of the country.

(14) The Afghan government has announced that it will provide $2 million in funding to support the development of new infrastructure projects. The funds will be used to support the development of new infrastructure projects in various parts of the country.

May 3, 2018

4 Out

---

(1) "The situation in Afghanistan has deteriorated significantly in recent months, with the Taliban launching a series of attacks on government forces and local residents," said Khater Pardes, another resident. "These problems will not exist if parliament in the country." Saidi Qizizada Nili, an MP.

(2) The Afghan National Institute of Alcohol and Drug Control (ANIDC) slammed Monday’s suicide bombing in Kabul, saying it was an unprecedented attack on press freedom.

(3) The ANIDC said the attack was one of the deadliest days on record for media in Afghanistan.

(4) The Taliban controls or influences 59 districts (14.5 percent). The remaining 119 districts (31 percent) are under the control of the government.

(5) The report mentioned that UNAMA also formally tracked the deaths of translators, interpreters, and others’ (7) Concerns as...